MERCER UNIVERSITY HANDBOOKS

It is the purpose of Mercer University to adhere to the rules and regulations, course offerings, and financial charges as announced in this handbook or in other publications. The University, nevertheless, hereby gives notice that it reserves the right to withdraw any subject, to change its rules affecting the admission and retention of students, or the granting of credit or degrees, or to alter its fees and other charges, whenever such changes are adjudged by it to be desirable or necessary. Attendance at Mercer University is a privilege that may be forfeited by anyone whose conduct is adjudged as not consistent with the traditions, policies, and regulations of the University.

The Mercer University Student Handbook sets forth the major policies and procedures affecting students. Because the University is a dynamic institution, changes are inevitable. This handbook will be revised as new policies and procedures are adopted. The latest edition will supersede all former editions unless stated otherwise in the text.

In addition to the Mercer University Student Handbook, the individual colleges and schools and/or campuses may develop supplemental operating guidelines and procedures. Links to the supplemental student handbooks are located on the Provost’s web site (http://provost.mercer.edu/handbooks/StudentHandbook.cfm).

The provisions of this Mercer University Student Handbook supersede collegiate and campus policies and procedures.

Wherever the University has chosen to adopt policies and principles similar to or incorporating portions of statements of American Association of University Professors or other external bodies, the University reserves the right to interpret such policies or principles for itself and is not bound by external interpretations.

The Cecil B Day Atlanta Campus Student Handbook is available online under Supplemental Handbooks: (http://provost.mercer.edu/handbooks/StudentHandbook.cfm).

McAfee School of Theology at Mercer University forms Christian leaders whose practice and scholarship, empowered by their passion for God and neighbor, change lives and transform communities.

The School accomplishes this mission by:

- Integrating spirituality with service
  - Practicing spiritual disciplines that nurture us for Christian service
  - Embracing ethnic, gender, and theological diversity to enhance our spiritual growth and moral formation
  - Creating opportunities to learn in community, experience transformation, and risk action

- Integrating theological inquiry with prophetic vision
  - Interpreting the story of the Christian faith through sacred scriptures and traditions
  - Connecting faith to global contexts in ways that engage personal, communal, and political realities
  - Critiquing the structures of our society from an informed prophetic voice

- Integrating worship with witness
  - Celebrating God’s presence in worship as the source of the Church’s call to community and global transformation
  - Reading cultural contexts to create holistic strategies for ministry
  - Proclaiming the love of God in Jesus Christ through dialogue and in partnership with others

Vision and Mission Statement adopted by the McAfee Faculty December 16, 2015.

FOUNDING PRINCIPLES

Based on Jesse Mercer’s vision, McAfee School of Theology is founded on 10 principles that have guided its inception and will continue to guide its formation and character:

1. The School shall be founded upon the belief that Jesus Christ is the Word of God, the center and focus of faith.

2. The School shall spring from Mercer University’s conviction about its own vocation as an institution, borne and nurtured by Baptists and Baptist churches and committed to undergirding the work and witness of the church as a community of faith.

3. The School shall seek to educate students who are:
   - literate and disciplined in the study of sacred scripture;
   - articulate in understanding the historical and theological issues of faith;
   - effective preachers and interpreters of the Christian gospel;
   - wise and compassionate in personal and social ministry;
   - prepared to integrate faith and life in the spiritual formation of congregations.

4. The School shall be devoted to the preparation of men and women who combine the call of God’s spirit with the intellectual gifts, the emotional maturity and the spiritual discipline to become effective and responsible pastors and leaders in ministry.

5. The School shall be inclusive in spirit and practice, affirming the open search for truth, and fostering tolerance for religious and intellectual diversity.

6. By underscoring both scholarly discipline and the experience of ministry, the School shall seek to break through the dichotomy of theory and practice, claiming both reason and compassion, the mind and the heart as gifts of God and conceiving ministry as bringing the sacred to bear upon every dimension of human experience.

7. The School shall hold steadfastly to the high and defining traditions of Baptists, including the priesthood of believers, the separation of church and state, the autonomy of the local congregations as the context for mission and ministry, the centrality of scripture to the life of faith, and the resolve that neither creeds nor human affirmations of faith should stand as tests of orthodoxy.

8. While holding firmly to its high calling and to its specific responsibility for theological education among Baptists, the School shall also accept its responsibility to embrace the whole world as the creation of God and to serve the wider Christian community as the people of God who are called to live out God’s purpose and presence in the world.

9. The School shall embody the historical traditions of Mercer University, valuing both intellectual freedom and the affirmation of faith as the foundations of the University.

10. The School shall serve as a continuing resource to churches, pastors and professionals in ministry for their continuing education and as a reference and placement service for churches, pastors and other church leaders.

MERGER UNIVERSITY’S MISSION
Mercer University's mission is to teach, to learn, to create, to discover, to inspire, to empower and to serve.

In fulfilling this mission, the University supports undergraduate, graduate, and professional learning as well as basic research and its application in service to others. As a university committed to excellence and innovation, Mercer challenges members of its community to meet and exceed high standards in their teaching, learning, research, scholarship and service.
Founded by Baptists in 1833, Mercer is an independent university that remains grounded in a tradition that embraces freedom of the mind and spirit, cherishes the equal worth of every individual, and commits to serving the needs of humankind. As a reflection of this heritage:

We encourage our students to discover and develop fully their unique combination of gifts and talents to become leaders who make a positive difference in the world.

We seek to inspire members of our community to live virtuous and meaningful lives by using their gifts and talents to serve the needs of humankind as an expression of their love for God and neighbor.

We seek to enrich the mind and spirit by promoting and facilitating an open and rigorous search for truth and understanding, including an examination of the moral, religious and ethical questions of this and every age.

We affirm and respect the dignity and sacred worth of every person and celebrate both our commonalities and our differences.

STUDENT POLICIES
These policies describe expectations of you as a student. It is your responsibility to familiarize yourself with the information presented in this Student Handbook, the Mercer University, and Cecil B. Day Campus Handbooks, along with the other information available within your specific program of study. McAfee School of Theology reserves the right to make changes to policies and procedures without notice as necessitated by governing authorities or administrative needs.

STUDENT TECHNOLOGY REQUIREMENTS
All McAfee students must have access to a computer with Microsoft Word (or software that can export as a Word document [.doc or .docx]), presentation software (ie. Powerpoint, Keynote, Prezi, etc.), and high-speed internet. Students are required to access, use, and communicate through the following university systems: Mercer email, Canvas, and MyMercer. Students are instructed on these systems at new student orientation. Any additional software or equipment requirements, including requirements for distance education, will be noted on course schedules and syllabi. Examples might include: a webcam, headphones, additional software, etc.

ADMISSION TO GRADUATE DEGREE PROGRAMS
All persons who wish to enter one of the graduate programs at Mercer University must submit a formal application to the school that sponsors the desired degree program. Certain basic qualifications must be met for admission to the graduate programs. All programs require that students hold a bachelor’s degree from a regionally accredited college or university with a specified minimum undergraduate grade point average. Graduate admissions tests appropriate to the particular academic program are usually required. Specific requirements for each graduate program are given with the description of that program.

International students must provide a complete record of all previous schooling. This must include secondary schooling showing the dates attended, grades achieved or examinations passed, and rank in class, if available. Official transcripts must be accompanied by a CERTIFIED English translation. Three reference letters, preferably from instructors in the undergraduate school(s) attended, are required, along with a personal vita, which should include all work experience, research study and experience, and professional development objectives. A statement of financial support must be obtained and submitted. Proficiency in English must be established in one of the following ways:

(1) Qualified students who present a score of 215 or above on the TOEFL will be admitted to the University. For students who desire additional language study after being admitted to the University, Mercer University English Language Institute (MUELI) short courses are available in specific skill areas.

(2) Qualified students who present a TOEFL score below 215 or have no TOEFL score may be admitted conditionally contingent upon their successful completion of Mercer University English Language Institute (MUELI). With the permission of the academic advisor, MUELI students may register for up to 6 credit hours while completing the upper levels of MUELI.

The admissions requirements are designed to identify qualified students who have the ability to complete a program successfully. All applicants for admission to the McAfee School of Theology at Mercer University are required to have a regionally accredited bachelor’s degree with a liberal arts core or proof of an equivalent degree from a foreign university. Doctoral applicants are also required to have a regionally accredited M.Div. or equivalent. Admission will be based on the total application and admission interview. The Dean gives ultimate approval of admission.

Master of Divinity (M.Div.) & Master of Arts in Christian Ministry (M.A.C.M.)
Degree Programs

The McAfee School of Theology seeks individuals who combine the call of God’s spirit with the intellectual gifts, the emotional maturity, and the spiritual discipline to become effective and responsible leaders in Christian ministry.

Candidates for admission may be upcoming or recent graduates of a regionally accredited undergraduate institution, or they may be college graduates who have been active in their church and community for many years. Bi-vocational ministers who want to enhance their theological education are also encouraged to apply for admission.

Successful applicants will complete and submit the following application materials to the McAfee School of Theology Admissions Office:

• Biographical Information
• Resume - Including church positions and service; secular occupations; community involvement; academic honors; and research, civic, or leadership awards
• Official Transcripts from all higher educational institutions previously attended. Applicants are required to have a regionally accredited bachelor's degree with a liberal arts core or proof of an equivalent degree from a foreign university.
• Background check* Completed online at Castle Branch, or call 1-888-666-7788 for more information. Please allow up to two weeks for us to receive the report. The package cost is $33.50, which must be ordered and purchased directly online by the applicant. The admissions office will supply the appropriate step-by-step directions on how to complete the background check. Please download instructions to order your background check and have it sent to the McAfee School of Theology at Mercer University. (International students having obtained an F-1 visa are excluded from the background check requirement).
• $50.00 application fee
• Autobiographical essay - (In 1250-1500 words speak to the following four questions: Give an account of your Christian pilgrimage. Tell the story of your personal commitment and call to ministry. What factors have led you to apply to McAfee School of Theology for your theological training? What are your ministry goals (the kind of ministries you envision for yourself)?)
• Three Letters of Recommendation (one from each of the following:)
  o Pastor/Church Leader
  o Professor / Supervisor
  o Professor / Supervisor
• Writing Sample of 2000-2500 words. This may be an excerpt of an academic paper on any topic. Please include bibliography and in-text citations or footnotes. Applicants who do not have an academic writing sample may contact the admissions office for a prompt.
• Admissions Interview as needed.

*Failure to undergo the background check will result in exclusion from admission consideration. An individual with a criminal conviction is not automatically excluded from admission; the School will evaluate the time frame, nature, gravity, and relevancy of the conviction or charge offense in making a decision. Applicants may appeal the decision and will have the opportunity to present information to dispute the background check.

A minimum grade point average of 2.75 overall and 3.0 in a student's major is normally required. In certain cases, a student may be admitted on probation if the student has admission deficiencies; such a student will have one semester to remove any remaining admission requirements in order to remain in the Master’s degree program. The Dean gives final approval for admission to the McAfee School of Theology.

Master of Theological Studies Degree Program (M.T.S.)
The Masters of Theological Studies (M.T.S.) is a 49-hour two-year academically rigorous degree program designed to prepare students for advanced and specialized work in religion. Because of its academic nature, many students who pursue an M.T.S. go on to further graduate studies in numerous fields related to theology or serve in the non-profit sector, higher education, counseling, or various communities of faith. The ideal candidate for the M.T.S. degree is intellectually curious, academically focused, and highly motivated. A background in theology or religion is not required.

Successful applicants will complete and submit the following application materials to the McAfee School of Theology Admissions Office:

• Biographical Information
• Resume
• Official Transcripts from all higher educational institutions previously attended. Applicants are required to have a regionally accredited bachelor's degree with a liberal arts core or proof of an equivalent degree from a foreign university.

*Failure to undergo the background check will result in exclusion from admission consideration. An individual with a criminal conviction is not automatically excluded from admission; the School will evaluate the time frame, nature, gravity, and relevancy of the conviction or charge offense in making a decision. Applicants may appeal the decision and will have the opportunity to present information to dispute the background check.

Doctor of Ministry Degree Program (D.Min.)
The Doctor of Ministry Committee of the faculty grants admission to the Doctor of Ministry degree program. Decisions are based on the total profile of the applicant, including an analysis of the applicant’s writing ability, as seen in the admission essays; quality of recommendations; grade point averages of academic work; standardized test scores; and the nature and extent of the applicant’s ministry experience. No single area of deficiency will disqualify an applicant from admission.

Successful applicants will complete and submit the following application materials to the McAfee School of Theology Admissions Office:

• Biographical Information
• Resume
• Official transcripts from all higher education institutions previously attended. A grade point average of 3.25 from all master’s degree study in theology is preferred. Applicants must have completed a Master of Divinity degree (or a master’s degree in theology with a 72 hour M.Div. equivalence) from a school fully accredited by a regional accrediting agency recognized by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (or a recognized international accrediting organization). Applicants are expected to have served in full-time ministry for at least three years following receipt of the master’s degree.
• A description of roles and responsibilities in active ministry in which the applicant can complete meaningful research integrating biblical, theological, and pastoral insights into the practice of specific ministry. Most applicants must have been engaged in active ministry for at least three years following receipt of an acceptable master’s degree in theology (A limited number of highly qualified applications with ministry experience completed prior to completion of the degree may be accepted).

• Brief, written career assessment describing the applicant’s history, ministry experience, ministry competencies, sense of call, goals for D.Min. study, theological self-reflection and a general area of research interest for a Project Thesis.

• Writing Sample of 2000-2500 words. This may be an excerpt of an academic paper from a theological graduate course. Please include bibliography and in-text citations or footnotes

• Background check* Completed online at Castle Branch, or call 1-888-666-7788 for more information. Please allow up to two weeks for us to receive the report. The package cost is $33.50, which must be ordered and purchased directly online by the applicant. The admissions office will supply the appropriate step-by-step directions on how to complete the background check. Please download instructions to order your background check and have it sent to the McAfee School of Theology at Mercer University. (International students having obtained an F-1 visa are excluded from the background check requirement).

• An on-site or telephone interview arranged by the D.Min. office with a faculty member or the Associate Dean.

*Failure to undergo the background check will result in exclusion from admission consideration. An individual with a criminal conviction is not automatically excluded from admission; the School will evaluate the time frame, nature, gravity, and relevancy of the conviction or charge offense in making a decision. Applicants may appeal the decision and will have the opportunity to present information to dispute the background check.

Complete the Application for Admission and return it with a check for $50.00, made payable to "McAfee School of Theology." This is a non-refundable application fee. The Doctor of Ministry committee of the faculty serves as the Admissions Committee for the program. All applicants are reviewed on the basis of a total profile of the applicant. No one expectation will eliminate an applicant from consideration.

Upon action by the committee, the Associate Dean will send a letter notifying the applicant of its decision. At that point, the admitted student must provide to the Doctor of Ministry office documentation of approval and a Covenant of Support for participation in the program from the student’s place of ministry.

Each admitted student must also complete a University Health form prior to registration, as well as submit to a criminal background check.
Accelerated Special Consideration Program (ASCP)

Mercer University’s Accelerated Special Consideration Program (ASCP) between Penfield College and the McAfee School of Theology—Bachelor of Arts in Liberal Studies degree and Master of Divinity degree—offers highly qualified students enrolled in the Penfield College B.A. in Liberal Studies degree with a religious studies concentration the opportunity to earn both the B.A. in liberal studies and M.Div. degree (McAfee School of Theology) in a reduced time frame. Students admitted to the ASCP based on the Admission Requirements will be able to complete the B.A. in Liberal Studies (religious studies concentration) by enrolling in McAfee School of Theology foundational level courses that align with the Graduate Certificate in Theological Studies. These courses will be applied toward the completion of the B.A. in liberal studies degree (religious studies concentration). These same foundational courses will also count toward the completion of the M.Div. degree. In this way, students will be able to complete the M.Div. degree in two rather than three years, based on full-time enrollment.

The following courses offered through McAfee School of Theology may be completed and applied to the required course work for the religious studies concentration in B.A. Liberal Studies degree:

Please refer to Penfield College’s catalog section on Accelerated Special Consideration Program under Penfield College, as well as McAfee School of Theology’s M.Div. Degree Admissions section, for complete information on admissions requirements. Successful applicants must complete and submit application materials to the McAfee School of Theology Admissions Office. A minimum grade point average of 2.75 overall and 3.0 in a student's Mercer University courses is required. The McAfee Dean gives final approval for admission to the ASCP program and to the McAfee School of Theology.

Program Requirements

1. Students must have completed a minimum of 60 credit hours toward the B.A. in Liberal Studies degree, to include all of the general education requirements and the B.A. degree core classes (with the exception of the LBST 498 capstone) before application to the ASCP B.A./M.Div. degree. A minimum of fifteen undergraduate hours (to include the five BA/LBST degree core requirements listed above) must be completed at Mercer University prior to application to the ASCP. A student may also need to complete any outstanding general education requirements. A 3.0 GPA for all Mercer University courses is required at the time of application.

2. To complete the requirements for the B.A. in liberal studies, students will complete the LBST 498 Senior Capstone course in the semester in which they complete the religious studies concentration (eight courses) required for the B.A./liberal studies degree with a religious studies concentration. These concentration courses will align with the courses in the McAfee School of Theology Graduate Certificate in Theological Studies.

3. Students must meet all admission requirements (see above) for the McAfee M.Div degree with exception of the completion of their B.A. degree.

4. Students applying for BA/MDIV ASCP program will be interviewed by the McAfee School of Theology and the Penfield College Department of Liberal Studies prior to admission into the program. The interview team will be constituted by faculty members from both schools.

5. If a student does not continue with McAfee, any courses completed in McAfee with a grade of C or higher will count toward the B.A. liberal studies degree with a concentration in Religious Studies.
6. Students in the ASCP program will enroll in the approved foundational courses as offered by the McAfee School of Theology in their Graduate Certificate in Theological Studies and taught by McAfee faculty. McAfee will offer these courses in a fully online format, a hybrid format, or face-to-face format accessible to a working adult student.

7. The foundational courses will count toward the B.A. in Liberal Studies with a concentration in Religious Studies and will allow the student to receive advance standing at McAfee upon fulfilling the requirements for the B.A. in Liberal Studies at Penfield.

The B.A. in Liberal Studies requires a total of 120 hours and the M.Div. degree requires 74 hours. Six (18 hours of credit) to eight (24 hours of credit) courses taken at the graduate level will be applied toward completion of the B.A. degree. The approved foundational courses are those offered by the McAfee School of Theology in their Graduate Certificate. These credits will provide the student with advanced standing per McAfee's standards, accelerating the pace at which students will go on to earn the M.Div.

Graduate Certificate in Faith-Based Social Enterprise
The Graduate Certificate in Christian Social Enterprise is a 9-hour, immersion intensive program that can be completed in one summer. It consists of three (3 credit hour) courses taught concurrently: Theology of Christian Social Enterprise (THPT 611), Theory of Social Change (THPT 612), and The Business of Social Enterprise (THPT 613). The certificate is project-based, involving immersion in real-world contexts, interaction with real social enterprises, entrepreneurs and investors, guest speakers and lectures, and culminating in team projects. Students are required to do both pre-work (reading and reflection) and post-work (a mentor-led team-based project) as part of the coursework. During the coursework intensive period, students meet five days a week, for seven hours a day. Days are divided into classroom time, field immersions, project work, guest lectures and outings. The program is cohort-based, highly experiential, competence-development focused, and uses adaptive learning methodologies.

Through immersive experiences in real-world contexts, students will identify, as a class, one concrete social problem that demands innovative solutions. In project teams of three or four, they will utilize human-centered-design to empathize, define, ideate, prototype, and test solutions. Each team will then choose an idea and by the end of the certificate, develop this idea into a potential startup venture with a logical and viable business model, a clearly articulated kingdom mission and vision, a well-articulated social impact aim with an assessment mechanism to measure it, a minimally viable proof of concept and a marketing plan. This final project will begin during the coursework but continue beyond the intensive as teams work with their mentor and then gather again a month later for a "pitch event" in which the teams will have the opportunity to pitch their ventures to a group of real impact investors, social enterprise attorneys, entrepreneurs, seasoned ministry practitioners, and pastors.

Applicants must have a regionally accredited bachelor's degree with a liberal arts core or proof of an equivalent degree from a foreign university with at least a 2.75 GPA. Applicants will submit an application, application fee, required essay, an official undergraduate transcript, and a background check to the McAfee School of Theology Admissions Office. In addition, prospective students are required to pitch a social enterprise idea to the selection committee composed of faculty and staff from McAfee School of Theology and CenterForm who are working directly with the Certificate Program. It is expected that any student admitted into the program will have significant experience in a related field, such as business, community development, or non-profit management. Students who have been selected for admission will be admitted into all three courses as a cohort and must enroll in all three courses at once.

Students in the Graduate Certificate Program are required to abide by Mercer University and McAfee School of Theology policies and procedures, including but not limited to the Community of Respect, Code of Conduct, and Academic Integrity.

International Students
For study at Mercer, an F-1 Visa is required of all students who are not citizens of the United States. An I-20 Form is issued to all accepted and approved international applicants upon receipt of the Declaration of Finances. This form is used to obtain the F-1 Visa. Those students who want to be considered for a tuition grant should have their applications complete and an I-20 issued by January 15 to be eligible for financial assistance for the following fall semester. Qualified students whose native language is not English must show proficiency by scoring a minimum official TOEFL score of 79 IBT (internet based TOEFL), 215 CBT (computer based TOEFL), 550 PBT (paper based TOEFL) or 6.5 IELTS.

International students who receive a tuition grant must also show evidence of $14,000 in annual living expenses. Those students who do not receive a grant will be responsible for paying the current tuition rates. Each international applicant must complete a Declaration of Finances before an I-20 can be issued. If personal finances do not show evidence of $14,000 in living expenses, a sponsor will need to supply current bank documents in the above amount and a letter of sponsorship. In addition, we require that the student or sponsor(s) deposit $7,000 into the student's account at Mercer University by July 1 of the year the student plans to attend. The student or sponsor(s) will also be required to deposit another $7,000 by January 15 of the following semester. The University will disburse the deposited $7,000 at the start of the semester once the student has arrived for class.

McAfee has a stewardship responsibility with regard to these awards. Students who are on F-1 Visas and are not able to meet these obligations will jeopardize their grants from the University. Persons who do not currently possess the prerequisite qualifications for admission or who do not intend to pursue vocational ministry but who would like to take courses may audit courses. The Dean gives final approval for permission to audit courses.

Each student must complete the required Mercer University health document prior to matriculation. Health forms will be distributed to accepted students (see Immunization Policy).

For individuals who do not currently possess a bachelor's degree, but who want to obtain a graduate theological education, Mercer offers undergraduate education through the College of Liberal Arts in Macon and through the off-campus programs of the Tift College of Education, the Penfield College of Mercer University, and the Stetson School of Business and Economics. For more information about these programs, contact the Office of Undergraduate Admissions at (800) 342-0841 (in Georgia) or (800) 637-2378 (outside Georgia), and ask for extension 2650.

BACKGROUND CHECKS
In order to fulfill contracts with our seminary partners, McAfee School of Theology requires that all McAfee applicants undergo a criminal background check. Admission into McAfee is pending receipt of a background check report from CastleBranch. Applicants are responsible for ordering and purchasing their own background check directly online. Each applicant must authorize McAfee
School of Theology to obtain a background check in order to satisfy the admission requirements. The only exclusion to the background check will be special exceptions made for International Students who are in the process of obtaining, or have obtained the F-1 visa. This exception is monitored by the Admissions Office, which has the right to administer the exemption as necessary.

Failure to undergo the background check will result in exclusion from admission consideration. An individual with a criminal conviction is not automatically excluded from admission; the School will evaluate the time frame, nature, gravity, and relevancy of the conviction or charge offense in making a decision. Applicants may appeal the decision and will have the opportunity to present information to dispute the background check. There are no additional fees for the appeal process and the timeframe for considering the appeal process varies. Typically, the applicant will receive a final decision to their appeal within one month of the applicant’s submission of all appeal paperwork.

PROOF OF IMMUNIZATIONS
Each student must complete the required Mercer University health document prior to matriculation. Health forms will be distributed to accepted students (see University Immunization policy).

CLASS AUDITING REGULATIONS
The McAfee School of Theology encourages and welcomes those who wish to audit courses. No paper assignments or examinations will be required or graded. The fee for auditing a class is $150, plus fees. Current students enrolled for nine or more hours may audit one class for free per semester. Courses that have been audited cannot be later established on a student's record by examination-for-credit, and, if the student wishes to change an audit course to credit, he or she must do so by that semester's add/drop deadline. The Dean gives final approval for permission to audit courses. For more information on eligibility and application, please see “Eligibility, Non-Degree Programs.”

READMIT STUDENTS
Students who withdrew from the University voluntarily and wish to re-enter the University after an absence of more than one calendar year may seek readmission.

The student must be in good standing with the University and have a cumulative grade point average of 2.5 or higher. Readmission should be requested at least four weeks prior to the date of anticipated enrollment. The following materials must be submitted to the Registrar’s Office:

1. A completed application for readmission. There is no readmission fee.

2. Official transcripts of any college-level work completed at other institutions since leaving Mercer University.

3. A completed questionnaire detailing reasons for the student’s absence and plan for completing the degree.

All McAfee School of Theology students, as well as any student applying for readmission with less than 2.5 cumulative grade point average and not in good standing with the University, are required to request readmission in writing addressed to the Dean of the School of Theology. The letter and application form should be submitted at least four weeks prior to the date of anticipated enrollment.

Students who leave the University, and are not enrolled for three consecutive semesters, must fulfill the Catalog requirements in force at the time of re-enrollment, including time limits on degree completion. Files are purged five years from the last date of attendance. Students who seek readmission after that time, and have attended other institutions during that interim, must secure new transcripts from those institutions.

ADMISSION ON PROBATION
If a student was admitted on probation and earns a 2.5 or better during the first semester, he or she will be sent a letter from the Dean removing them from probationary status. If the student was admitted on probation and does not earn a 2.5 or better during the first semester, he or she will be dismissed from the program.

TRANSFER and TRANSIENT CREDIT
Students may receive credit for courses taken at another institution as either transfer or transient credit. The number of hours accepted as transfer and transient credit will be assessed on a case-by-case basis and in no instance may exceed 25% of the degree. The maximum allowed credit is 18 credit hours for the M.Div. degree, 9 credit hours for the M.A.C.M. degree, 12 credit hours for the M.T.S. degree, and 8 credit hours for the D.Min. degree. Credit for transfer or transient courses may be awarded under the following conditions: (1) courses for the theological core were taken at a school that is both ATS and regionally accredited; (2) the courses were masters level courses, applicable to a master’s degree for the M.Div., M.A.C.M., or M.T.S. programs or doctoral level for the D.Min. program; (3) grades of at least B were received in the courses, (4) the courses fall within the maximum time limit for degree completion, and (5) the credits may not have been applied to a degree previously earned. Transfer credit is monitored by the Associate Dean. Courses taken as cross-registration through ARCHE and ATA are included in the maximum allowed transfer credits. The MTS and DMIN Thesis requirements are not accepted as transfer credit.

ADVANCED PLACEMENT
(M.Div., M.A.C.M., and M.T.S. programs only)
Should a student desire to place out of a foundation course in the programs, he/she will contact a faculty member in the relevant area to schedule an interview. The student must bring syllabi and papers from previous courses to the interview for evaluation by the professor. It is recommended that the student will have taken at least two courses in the area with grades of B+ or better and demonstrate a foundational knowledge of the topic. If the professor approves the advanced placement, he/she will fill out a form and submit it to the Assistant to the Dean. Advanced placement must be requested within a student’s first 12 hours.

REGISTRATION
Registration is required for admission to any class. The University requires all students to have a clear financial account, which includes paying all library and parking fines before registering. Students should consult the catalog for any prerequisites and special requirements for registration for specific courses.
Completing the registration process commits a student to the courses requested and to the corresponding fees and charges incurred. IMPORTANT: to cancel registration at any point, a student must notify the Registrar’s Office in writing before classes begin if s/he will be unable to attend any or all of the classes for which s/he is registered. If the appropriate official form is not completed, a grade of “F” or “FQ” may be assigned, if the student does not attend class. Non-attendance and/or non-payment do not constitute official schedule change, withdrawal, or term withdrawal.

McAfee School of Theology students may obtain course schedules online at the McAfee School of Theology website or from the Registrar’s Office. McAfee School of Theology students may register for classes online. Please make an appointment with your advisor prior to early registration to discuss your schedule. CROSS-REGISTRATION
The McAfee School of Theology allows for up to four elective courses to be taken by Masters degree students at member institutions of the Atlanta Regional Consortium for Higher Education (ARCHE) or Atlanta Theological Association (ATA) under the cross-registration arrangement of the Center provided they meet the academic requirements of the Center agreement. Courses completed at non-Mercer institutions, including ARCHE and ATA schools, are counted as transfer credit. Please consult the Transfer Credit Policy for your degree program and consult with the Associate Dean for Masters Studies to determine those courses that will apply to your degree program. Students who wish to cross-register must proceed as follows:

1. Obtain a University Center Cross Registration Form from the Registrar’s Office or the McAfee School of Theology website.

2. Fill out the Cross-Registration Form completely. The form requires the signature of the Associate Dean of the McAfee School of Theology and the Coordinator of Cross-Registration.

3. Check the calendar on the Cross-Registration form for the dates by which the cross registration form needs to be processed.

4. A student must be enrolled in a course at Mercer University to cross-register. The student will pay the tuition of Mercer for the course taken at the other institution. The refund policy applies if a student is unable to register at the host institution or if the student withdraws from the course.

5. The form will be sent to the host school for processing. Registration will be on a space available basis and upon approval of the host institution. Communication from the host institution will specify the time and date on which the student must register.

6. All regulations, policies, and procedures of a host institution apply to the cross registered student while enrolled there.

7. Students must complete a new Cross-Registration Form for any subsequent term in which they wish to participate in the Cross-Registration Program.

As a cross-registration student, you are graded according to the academic standards and grading practices of the host institution. Upon completion of the course, the cross registration coordinator of the host institution shall ensure that your transcript is sent to the cross registration coordinator of your home institution for inclusion on your official transcript.

COURSE CHANGES
Course changes (dropping and/or adding courses) must be done on or before dates specified in the calendar of the current academic Catalog.

To change courses during this period, a student must complete a Course Change Request form (available at the Registrar’s Office), securing the advisor’s signature, if required, and the appropriate date stamp of the Registrar’s Office. Courses dropped during this change period will not appear on the student’s grade report or permanent record. When a course is canceled, the students enrolled in the canceled course must go to the Registrar’s Office and complete a Course Change Request form.
STUDENT REQUESTS FOR CATALOG EXEMPTION
All student requests must be submitted in writing, along with any required forms, to the Office of the Associate Dean no later than the first Wednesday of the month.

INDEPENDENT STUDY
Should a student desire to take an independent study, he/she must submit a letter of request to the Associate Dean of Masters Programs, a preliminary syllabus that demonstrates how contact hour requirements will be met, and approval of the supervising professor. Final approval will be made by the appropriate Degree Program Committee. M.Div. and M.T.S students will be limited to a maximum of 9 hours for independent studies and guided research. MA students will be limited to a maximum of 6 hours.

MINIMUM HOURS REQUIREMENT
Students enrolled during the Fall and Spring semesters in the Master’s Degree programs are required to be enrolled for a minimum of six credit hours. There is no minimum enrollment requirement for D.Min. students.

Students who fail to meet this requirement must meet with the Associate Dean to discuss their academic progress and may be asked to withdraw from the degree program.

COURSE LOAD
The normal academic load for the fall and spring semesters is 12-13 credit hours per semester for M.Div. students, 9-10 hours for M.A.C.M students, 12-13 hours for M.T.S students, and 1-4 hours for D.Min. students. Masters students are considered to be full-time for purposes of Financial Aid if they are enrolled in nine hours of coursework per semester. D.Min. students are considered to be full-time for purposes of Financial Aid if they are enrolled in six hours of coursework per semester and half-time if they are enrolled for three hours. Masters students may take 14 or more hours per semester only with prior approval of the Associate Dean of the McAfee School of Theology.

RESIDENCY REQUIREMENTS
Students in the traditional M.Div., M.A.C.M., and M.T.S degree programs must complete at least 1/3 of their course credits in residence. M.Div. students must complete at least 8 classes (24 hours) on campus. Traditional (non-online cohort) M.A.C.M. students must complete at least 4 classes (12 hours) on campus. M.T.S. students must complete at least 5 classes (15 hours) on campus.

SUITEABLE PROGRESS TOWARDS DEGREE COMPLETION
Students are expected to make satisfactory progress towards their degree completion. Students who do not demonstrate satisfactory progress by completing the minimum requirements may be asked to withdraw from the degree program.
COMPLETION OF DEGREE REQUIREMENTS

A minimum career grade point average of 2.5 (C+) for M.A.C.M. and M.Div. students and 3.0 (B) for M.T.S. and D.Min. students is required for graduation. M.T.S. and D.Min. students must also submit an approved thesis. M.Div., M.A.C.M., and M.T.S. students must submit their portfolios for review.

A student in the Master of Arts in Christian Ministry or Master of Theological Studies degree program must complete all degree requirements within a six-year period. No credit will be given for courses taken more than six years prior to the date on which the degree is to be conferred.

A student in the Master of Divinity degree program must complete all degree requirements within an eight-year period. No credit will be given for courses taken more than eight years prior to the date on which the degree is to be conferred.

A student in the Doctor of Ministry degree program must complete all degree requirements within a six-year period. No credit will be given for courses taken more than six years prior to the date on which the degree is to be conferred.

Students who are not enrolled for more than one academic calendar year must re-apply for admission and are subject to all program policies, guidelines, and requirements in place at the time of re-enrollment. Students who previously attended any of the Mercer campuses and wish to re-enter the University after an absence of more than one calendar year must file for readmission at the Registrar's Office. The student must be in good standing with the University and have a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.0 as an undergraduate or 3.0 as a graduate or professional student. Readmission should be requested at least four weeks prior to the date of anticipated enrollment. The following materials must be submitted to the Registrar's Office:

1. A completed application for readmission. There is no fee.
2. Official transcripts of any college-level work completed at other institutions since leaving Mercer.

Students applying for readmission with less than a 2.0 cumulative grade point average as undergraduates or a 3.0 as graduate or professional students are required to submit a written request to the Dean of the school of their prior enrollment. The letter and application form should be submitted at least four weeks prior to the date of anticipated enrollment.

Generally, readmitted students are permitted to graduate from the University according to the degree requirements set forth in the catalog under which they originally enrolled. However, students who leave the University and are not enrolled for three consecutive years must fulfill the catalog requirements in force at the time of re-enrollment.

Files are purged five years from the last date of attendance. Students who seek readmission after that time, and have attended other institutions, must secure new transcripts from those institutions.

PORTFOLIOS

MERCER UNIVERSITY CREDIT HOUR POLICY

Purpose and Scope of the Policy

This policy defines the credit hour at Mercer University in accordance with federal Program Integrity Regulations and requirements of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges. The credit hour policy applies to all courses at all levels (undergraduate, graduate, and professional) that award academic credit regardless of the mode of delivery. Academic units are responsible for ensuring that credit hours are awarded only for work that meets the requirements outlined in this policy.
Federal Definition of a Credit Hour
For purposes of the application of this policy and in accord with federal regulations, a credit hour is an amount of work represented in intended learning outcomes and verified by evidence of student achievement that is an institutionally established equivalency that reasonable approximates

Not less than one hour of classroom or direct faculty instruction and a minimum of two hours out of class student work each week for approximately fifteen weeks for one semester or trimester hour of credit, or ten to twelve weeks for one quarter hour of credit, or the equivalent amount of work over a different amount of time, or

At least an equivalent amount of work as required outlined in item 1 above for other academic activities as established by the institution including laboratory work, internships, practica, studio work, and other academic work leading to the award of credit hours.

Mercer Credit Hour Policy
Mercer University adheres to the Carnegie unit for contact time: 750 minutes of classroom or direct faculty instruction and a minimum of 1500 minutes of out-of-class student work for each credit awarded. Mercer defines a class hour as 50 minutes. The expectation of contact time inside the classroom and student effort outside the classroom is the same in all formats of a course, whether it is fully online format, a hybrid format, or face-to-face contact with some content delivered by electronic means, or one delivered in lecture or seminar format.

Guidelines for the Implementation of Mercer’s Credit Hour Policy
Traditionally-delivered (face-to-face) courses on the 15-week semester: A 3-hour course must have 2250 minutes of classroom instruction. (Law classes meet for 180 minutes each week for a 14-week semester).

Condensed courses: Classes meeting on an accelerated schedule will have the same number of instructional minutes (2250 for a 3-hour class) as those taught in the 15-week semester. Courses taught during the 8-week sessions will be scheduled for 285 minutes each week. A faculty member who, with requisite approval by the Dean’s office, wishes to move some of the required direct instructional time to a web-based environment or to another out-of-class experience for pedagogical reasons must clearly delineate in the syllabus the additional out-of-class experiences that will substitute for in-class instruction. Such experiences must exceed assignments required for the fully face-to-face version of the course in order to count toward direct instructional time and must be required, structured, and faculty-directed. Faculty are responsible for designing their courses to ensure the required number of direct instructional minutes each week, as well as the expected additional student preparatory work (two hours for each hour of direct instruction). Deans’ offices are responsible for reviewing and monitoring any proposed deviations from the regular face-to-face class schedule.

Hybrid or Online Courses: A course that is delivered partially or fully online must meet the same requirements of 750 minutes of direct instruction and 1500 minutes of student work per credit hour. Faculty teaching online or hybrid courses must account for 37.5 hours (2250 minutes) of direct instructional time for each 3-credit hour course. The syllabus must clearly delineate direct instructional activities, as well as any required synchronous activities required outside class session times indicated in the schedule. Courses carrying the same course number that are offered both face-to-face and hybrid/online must meet the same learning objectives, be organized around the same or comparable learning activities, and be assessed by similar, comparable assessments.

Activities that count toward direct instructional time include the following:

- In-class instruction
- In-class tests/quizzes
- In-class student presentations
- Online lectures/instruction (synchronous or asynchronous)
- Virtual synchronous class meetings
- Case studies
- Group Wiki projects
- Video presentations
- Journal/Blog writing
- Chat rooms
- Discussion boards
- Field trips (including virtual)
- Online tests/quizzes
- Video conferencing
- Virtual labs
- Online content modules
- Service learning
- Group or team-based activities
- Podcasts

Thesis/dissertation and Independent Study courses: Courses where students are working on independent projects, such as in thesis/dissertation hours and independent studies, will conform to the standard minimum of 150 minutes of student work per week over a 15-week semester or the equivalent amount of work distributed over a different period of time for each credit hour awarded.

Laboratory classes: One credit hour is assigned for 100 minutes or more of laboratory work per week throughout a 15-week semester.

Studio classes: Studio classes conform to the 750 minutes per semester for 1 credit hour requirement described above.

Performance/Recital/Ensemble: In accordance with the National Association of Schools of Music recommendations, 1 credit hour of ensemble work or applied music lessons represents a minimum of 3 hours of practice each week, on average, for a period of 15 weeks, plus the necessary individual instruction as defined by the major subject.

Internships, Clinical experiences, Student Teaching: Such experiential, field-based courses require a minimum of 3 hours of student work per week over the 15-week semester for each credit hour awarded. Student work includes clock hours at the field site and meetings with supervisors, as well as outside preparation and assignments. Programs may require more than the minimum 3 hours of student work per credit hour and may be guided by their specific accrediting bodies or applicable state regulations.

Variable credit courses: Courses that are available for variable credit must fulfill the Mercer credit hour policy requirements and clearly articulate the expectations of student work for each credit hour.
CLASS ATTENDANCE
Regular attendance in scheduled class sessions is important to the learning process and especially crucial to the interactive nature of the courses within the McAfee School of Theology. Each professor will outline attendance policies for his or her classes in the course syllabi. Students, however, must attend at least 75% of the scheduled class meetings in order to receive credit for a course.

Because the programs are professional level, the School assumes that students have high level of motivation and responsibility. Accordingly, it is expected that students will attend class unless there are significant reasons for being absent. Professors are required to check attendance and keep attendance records. Each professor has the discretion to indicate in the syllabus his or her policy on absences, late arrival at class, or leaving before the class is over. Repeated lateness or leaving early may be counted as an absence, and the professor may penalize a student’s grade for absences, if the professor’s policy is stated in the syllabus. If a student is in doubt about the number of absences he or she has for a given course, it is the student’s responsibility to check with the professor.

INCLUSIVE LANGUAGE POLICY
McAfee School of Theology requires all students to use inclusive language in reference to human gender for coursework, theses, and dissertations. Students are encouraged to use inclusive language in reference to divinity for coursework, theses, and dissertations.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY POLICY
The purpose of this policy is to determine who may own, control, or use content that has been used in on-line instruction sites.

Faculty
It is the policy of the McAfee School of Theology that individualized content posted on online instruction sites such as Canvas, shall remain the intellectual property of the instructor who produced it. This includes, but is not limited to, syllabi, power point presentations, lecture notes, blog entries and comments, exams, and class handouts. The access to and use of these materials and tools shall be authorized and determined only by the instructor of record.

Students
It is the policy of the McAfee School of Theology that students shall retain all rights to their class work, such as papers and essays. This also includes work that is posted to on-line learning and discussion platforms, and blog entries and comments. Students will be informed if their on-line work will be retained in the course site beyond the duration of the semester, and whether others will have access to it. If a student’s work is retained on a course site, and the work identifies its creator, no grade or evaluative comments from the instructor will be included.

EXAMINATIONS
Examinations are conducted at scheduled times at the end of each semester. Students must report to the examination at the time scheduled. Changes in the examination schedule may be authorized only by the Associate Dean or Dean. Permission for a make-up examination due to illness or other emergency may be permitted at the discretion of the instructor.

GRADING SYSTEM
The method and manner of evaluation for course grades are left to the discretion of the course instructor as outlined in the course syllabus. A student may take an examination or submit an assigned project at other than the scheduled time only under extenuating circumstances and with permission from the instructor.

Cumulative grade point averages are computed on a quality point system. The interpretation of the letter grades and their quality point values is as follows:

ABX AND INCOMPLETE POLICY
The grade of ABX denotes that the student was absent from the scheduled final examination because of sickness or another valid and compelling reason that is satisfactory to the instructor. A special examination, to take the place of the one missed, must be taken no later than mid-term of the next semester, or the ABX grade will be changed to the grade of F.

The grade of IC (incomplete) means the student is passing the class but some relatively small part of the semester’s work remains incomplete because of illness or another valid and compelling reason that is satisfactory to the instructor.

A grade of “Incomplete” will be assigned if, due to exceptional extenuating circumstances and with the prior approval of both the instructor and Associate Dean, a student is not able to complete the required course work during the semester. All work must be completed by the date set by the professor, but no later than the end of the first full semester following the assignment of the “Incomplete” grade. At that time, the “IC” will be replaced with a letter grade. If the student has not completed the work by the date set by the professor, but no later than the end of the first full semester following the assignment of the “Incomplete” grade, the “IC” will be replaced with a letter grade of “F.”

It is the student’s responsibility to contact the professor and the Associate Dean in writing prior to the scheduled date of final examinations, request an “incomplete,” and agree on a schedule for completing the work, if the instructor and Associate Dean think that circumstances warrant the giving of an “incomplete.” Otherwise, work that is not turned in will be given an “F.” A student who receives an “incomplete” should adjust the course load for the next semester in order to allow for time to complete the course work from the previous semester. If a student begins to develop a pattern of requesting “incompletes,” requesting “incompletes” in consecutive semesters or on a recurring basis, he or she may be placed on probation.

If the student does not re-enroll in the University after receiving a grade of IC and the work for that class is not completed within 12 months after the IC was assigned, the IC will be changed to a grade of F. All ABX and IC grades must be replaced with traditional grades before degrees can be awarded.

IN PROGRESS (IP)
The IP (in progress) grade is assigned only in courses that require completion of the assigned work beyond the end of the semester. An IP grade may not be given in place of a grade of “incomplete” (IC). To qualify for an IP grade, courses must be approved by the appropriate Dean’s office. All grades of IP will be converted to F (failure) if the work is not completed in one calendar year from the time the IP grade is assigned.

REPEATING COURSES
A minimum career grade point average of 2.5 (C+) is required for graduation with the degree of Master of Arts in Christian Ministry or Master of Divinity. Students must also earn a minimum of a "C" in all required courses. Students may repeat no more than four (4) such courses. If a student receives less than a "C" in more than four (4) courses, the student will be dismissed from the program.

A minimum career grade point average of 3.0 (B) is required for graduation with the degree Master of Theological Studies or Doctor of Ministry. Students must also earn a minimum of a "B" in all required courses. Students may repeat no more than one (1) such course. If a student receives less than a "B" in more than one (1) course, the student will be dismissed from the program.

The following provisions apply:
Enrollment documents for such courses will carry “Repeat” added to the course, and this notation will appear also on the class roll and permanent record. Hours of credit will be granted only once. The second grade recorded in the final attempt will prevail, whether it is higher or lower than any previous grade(s) and the final grade will be used in computing the cumulative grade point average. The previous grade(s) will not be deleted from the permanent record. If the original course is no longer a part of the curriculum, an equivalent course may be substituted on the authority of the department and the Associate Dean. A student may not attempt any individual course more than twice without special permission from the Faculty.
When a course is repeated, the student is subject to the Catalog restriction on the total number of credit hours that may be taken in a single term. With the Associate Dean’s approval, a student who has a “C” average or above may, in emergency circumstances, be allowed to take the “repeat” as an overload.

A course may be repeated on an audit basis if a student chooses to do so. A withdrawal grade or an audit in the repeat of a course does not serve to delete the computation of the previous grade(s). Courses originally taken on a letter grade basis may not be repeated on a “satisfactory-unsatisfactory” basis. These provisions are not applicable to repeated work taken by a Mercer student as a transient at another institution.

GRADE APPEAL
If a student disagrees with an assigned course grade, the student is required to initiate an appeal with the appropriate faculty member no later than 30 days from the completion of the term in which the course was offered. Appeals received after the 30-day period will not be honored. Questions may be directed to the Associate Dean’s Office.

Students are encouraged to first meet with their instructor to discuss any disagreements regarding a grade. If satisfaction is not achieved, the student may then wish to submit an appeal to the Associate Dean. If satisfaction is not achieved, the student may then wish to submit an appeal to the Dean.

If satisfaction is not reached with the Dean’s decision, please refer to the Academic Grievances and Appeals Policies and Procedures in the University Student Handbook.

ACADEMIC PROBATION

M.Div., M.A.C.M., and Non-Degree
Any student whose current term GPA falls below a 2.5 will be placed on probation. The student must meet with the Associate Dean prior to the next semester to discuss course scheduling and plans for academic improvement. The student will be limited to taking no more than 9 hours of coursework while on probation. The student must then earn a 2.5 GPA or better in the following semester to be removed from probation.

If a student’s current term GPA falls below a 2.5 more than two semesters in their seminary career (including admission on probation), the student will be terminated from the program. A minimum career grade point average of 2.5 (C+) is required for graduation with the degree of Master of Divinity or Master of Arts in Christian Ministry.

M.T.S. and D.Min.
Any M.T.S. or D.Min. student whose current term GPA falls below a 3.0 will be placed on probation. The student must meet with the Associate Dean prior to the next semester to discuss course scheduling and plans for academic improvement. The student may be limited in the number of hours for enrollment during the probationary period. The student must then earn a 3.0 GPA or better in the following semester to be removed from probation. If a student’s current GPA falls below a 3.0 more than two semesters in their program (including admission on probation), the student will be terminated. A minimum career grade point average of 3.0 (B) is required for graduation with the degree of M.T.S. or Doctor of Ministry.
WITHDRAWING FROM A COURSE
A student may withdraw from a course with a grade of “W” after the course change period and on or before the last day for withdrawals as shown in the current calendar. Dates for withdrawals from special short courses are set by the appropriate division chairperson or Dean. For these withdrawals, the grade of “W” will be recorded on the student’s grade report and on the permanent record. These withdrawals are not used to compute grade point averages. To withdraw officially, a student must complete a Course Change Request (obtained from the Registrar’s Office). If the official withdrawal is not completed within the time limits described, a grade of “F” will be assigned if the student discontinues class attendance and performance. (See TERM WITHDRAWAL)

PERMANENT DISMISSAL
Students may be permanently dismissed from the McAfee School of Theology for any of the following reasons:

• Failing to meet the academic standard after being placed on academic probation two times
• Violation of the Mercer Code of Conduct (See Mercer Catalog)
• Violation of the McAfee Honor Code (See Student Handbook)

Students who are permanently dismissed may not apply for readmission.

REQUIRED LEAVE OF ABSENCE
In the case of extenuating circumstances that impede a student’s ability to make suitable academic progress, he/she may be required to take a leave of absence for a semester or longer. These circumstances include, but are not limited to:

• Medical emergencies, chronic illnesses, etc.
• Mental or emotional challenges
• Personal issues such as divorce, loss of a family member, etc.

Before returning to class, the student must have a meeting with the Associate Dean and show evidence of having dealt with the issues that required the leave of absence and the ability to complete the degree program within the specified time limits.

WITHDRAWAL FROM THE MCAFEE SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY
Term withdrawal (resignation) from the University occurs when a student officially withdraws from all courses in which s/he is enrolled at any time after the end of the drop/add deadline for a given session and semester. Please note that a student must withdraw from all sessions of a semester in order to complete a term withdrawal. The effective date of withdrawal is the date the form is received by the Office of the Registrar. Grades of W will be awarded for all of a student's courses when s/he officially withdraws before the published withdrawal deadlines for each session and semester. In order to receive grades of W, a student must complete the Term Withdrawal Form and submit it to the Office of the Registrar by the published deadline. A student who withdraws after the deadline must complete the form for official withdrawal, but grades of F will be recorded for his/her classes. In extreme personal circumstances and with appropriate documentation, a student may appeal to the Associate Dean of his/her college to have grades of W awarded when officially withdrawing after the deadline.

Non-attendance or ceasing to attend a course(s) does not constitute an official schedule change, course withdrawal, or term withdrawal. Failure to officially withdraw will result in academic and financial penalties.

A student who withdraws from a course or from the University when a disciplinary action or honor code violation is pending is not necessarily exempt from a sanction and the final outcome may disqualify the student from receiving a refund.

Information on Mercer's refund policies can be found in the "Financial Information" section of the Mercer University catalog.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Approved Leave of Absence
A student who is on an approved leave of absence retains in-institution status for Title IV loan repayment purposes. However, if the student does not return from a leave of absence, the student’s loan grace period starts at the date the leave began.

Generally, only one leave of absence may be granted within a 12-month period. The University may grant one additional leave of up to 30 days for a reason not defined in the regulations, if it determines that the leave is necessary due to unforeseen circumstances.

Jury duty, military service, and conditions covered by the Family and Medical Leave Act are acceptable reasons for granting an additional leave.

Unapproved Leave of Absence
An unapproved leave of absence is a leave granted by the University for academic reasons that do not meet the conditions of the Title IV regulations for an approved leave of absence. However, this unapproved leave of absence must be treated as a withdrawal for Title IV purposes. For a student who takes a leave of absence that does not meet the requirements for approval, the withdrawal date is the date that the student began the leave of absence.

REFUND AND WITHDRAWAL POLICIES
Please see the current Refund Policy located online at http://bursar.mercer.edu/atlanta/refund-checks/ and the Withdrawal Policy located online at http://bursar.mercer.edu/atlanta/withdrawal/

Total Hours for M.A.C.M: 38

The M.A.C.M. degree program is designed as a (minimum) two-year program with a maximum of ten (10) credit hours per semester (Fall/Spring).

Graduation Requirements

Minimum 2.5 GPA, completion of course requirements and 38 hours, completion and submission of portfolio, maximum completion time of six years.
Online Master of Arts in Christian Ministry (M.A.C.M.) Degree Program
The online Master of Arts in Christian Ministry degree program allows students to remain within their current ministry and professional contexts where they have already established significant ministry roots and community relationships. Within these very familiar contexts, they are able to participate in courses that allow for the full integration of learning in the context of communities in which they already are viewed as leaders or have the potential to move quickly into leadership roles.

The online M.A.C.M. allows the School of Theology to complement the mission of Mercer University by extending its reach into churches and neighborhoods far beyond the metropolitan Atlanta area. Students in this online degree program will be exposed to many of the same courses as traditional students, courses that encourage engagement in local churches and community ministries in order to affect social justice and community transformation.

Students entering the program must reside in a state or country where Mercer University is authorized to offer distance degree programs and courses to out-of-state residents. Students must also have consistent access to the internet, their own computer technology to complete assignments, and headphones and a webcam to facilitate video and audio conferencing.

The online M.A.C.M. program is designed for particular kinds of students, generally those who are several years beyond their college degree, already engaged in the professional practice of ministry or in a profession which does not allow them to move to the Atlanta area, and/or who serve as laypersons in churches who desire to have deeper theological and ministry training. The pace of the program is such that they are able to complete the degree by taking only two courses per semester over three years. Prospective students who live in the Atlanta area, who have recently graduated from college, or who have not yet established themselves in their professions are encouraged toward the traditional M.Div. and M.A.C.M. programs.

In order to facilitate the communal concerns posed by an online-only degree, students in the online program enter in a cohort based-system with a prescribed course sequence that will allow them to complete the degree in three years. Requiring students from each entering class to be in all of the same courses together facilitates, their familiarity with one another and helps build a strong community of learning.

The University has a robust distance learning support system to facilitate student integration into the life of the university. This includes the student support services outlined on the following university web page: http://distancelearning.mercer.edu/support-services/.

Distance education students have access to all library resources that on-campus students enjoy through the University's library website. All electronic resources are licensed such that students have universal access to them, regard-less of which campus they attend, or if they are working from off campus. Distance students can request print resources held by the libraries and these materials are delivered to the student via email as a pdf or, for monographs, by US Mail. Students also have access to material not owned by the University through inter-library loan. Distance education students have access to reference and research help from professional librarians by phone, email, or instant messaging.

MASTER OF THEOLOGICAL STUDIES DEGREE PROGRAM (M.T.S.)
The Masters of Theological Studies (M.T.S.) is a two-year, 49-hour graduate degree program that allows students to craft their own course of study in preparation for future advanced and specialized work in religion and theology, through teaching and research, church leadership, or community and global ministry.

The course of study allows students to concentrate in one of four broad areas: Bible, History/Theology, Ethics, and Practical Theology. All students in the degree program will complete 25 hours of foundational courses: Old Testament, New Testament, Christian Traditions, Philosophy and Theology, and Ethics. The remaining 24 hours of coursework (directed electives) is flexible, allowing students to focus on their major areas of interest by taking electives in their area, but with direction and approval from their Faculty Supervisors. These directed electives may include courses offered by their Faculty Supervisor or another faculty in that department area, or they could also include cross-listed courses offered from another department/area that provides interdisciplinary depth to the student’s area of interest.

Biblical studies students will complete 12 hours of Hebrew and/or Greek and a further 12 hours of advanced biblical studies tailored to their areas of interest, typically taking electives in the areas of Old and New Testaments. Historical/Theological and Ethics students will pursue 24 hours of electives tailored to their areas of interest, typically taking electives in the areas of history, theology and electives. Practical Theology students will complete 6 hours of specialized courses for their degree and an additional 18 hours of electives tailored to their areas of interest. Directed electives for Practical Theology students will focus on theoretical, historical, and philosophical foundations for the practices and traditions of religious communities.

Each student will complete a one-hour Research Methodology course in the second semester of the first year and a 60-page thesis or equivalent project in their final year on a topic of their choosing in consultation with a faculty thesis/project Supervisor.

COMBINED MASTER’S DEGREE PROGRAMS

Tuition will be charged at the host college rate. For example, students enrolled simultaneously in Theology courses and Penfield College courses will pay the Theology rate for their Theology courses and the Penfield College rate for their Counseling courses. Degrees will be awarded only at the completion of all curriculum requirements for both degree programs.

Students who wish to withdraw from a combined degree program and complete only the Theology degree must formally close the combined degree program by submitting a letter to the appropriate School and the Registrar requesting withdrawal from the non-McAfee School of Theology degree program and closing their enrollment. Please be aware that there may be repercussions in terms of how a student is able to complete the other degree withdrawn from at a future date. The student will need to consult with the appropriate department about this issue. The student must notify the McAfee School of Theology of their change in program and complete the catalog requirements under which they entered or the current catalog for the McAfee School of Theology.

MASTER OF DIVINITY (M.DIV.) AND MASTER OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION (M.B.A.)

The combined M.Div. and M.B.A. degrees integrate a foundation of Business Administration into the local church setting. The Master of Divinity curriculum incorporates up to nine (9) hours of M.B.A. core course work into the seventy-four (74) hour M.Div. degree. The Master of Business Administration incorporates up to six (6) hours of M.Div. credit into the thirty-six (36) hour M.B.A. degree. A full-time student could expect to finish the two degrees in three years of study, including summer terms.

Applicants must meet the admissions requirement for both McAfee School of Theology and Stetson School of Business and Economics. Applicants must submit current scores for the Graduate Management Admission Test (GMAT) and demonstrate completion of the Foundation Courses from the Stetson School of Business and Economics. Applicants may demonstrate foundational course completion by examination or in undergraduate and graduate study by transcript evaluation.

The Associate Dean of the Stetson School of Business and Economics must evaluate the student's transcript before she or he is eligible to enter the Master of Business Administration degree course work.

MASTER OF DIVINITY (M.DIV.) AND MASTER OF SCIENCE (M.S.) IN CLINICAL MENTAL HEALTH COUNSELING
The M.Div./M.S. in Clinical Mental Health Counseling degree program offers a combined degree option for students desiring study in both Theology/Pastoral Care and Professional Counseling. The combined M.Div. and M.S. degrees integrate the highest knowledge of professional counseling with the ministries of pastoral care and counseling. Both the M.Div. and M.S. programs hold the highest accreditation available in the United States. The most comprehensive Masters level program in faith oriented counseling, the M.Div./M.S. in Clinical Mental Health Counseling prepares you for licensure as a professional counselor. It is suitable for students who are planning careers that include both chaplaincy and professional counseling, for students who are interested in congregational-based mental health counseling, and for students who may be primarily interested in counseling but who require an M.Div. for ordination purposes.

The combined M.Div./M.S. degree program requires a minimum of 116 semester hours of graduate credit. It is designed as a five-year program with a typical load of 12 to 13 credit hours per semester (Fall/Spring). It may be completed within four years with a maximum of thirteen (13) credit hours per semester (Fall/Spring) and six (6) credit hours each summer. In order to meet degree requirements for the M.Div., the student must complete a minimum of 74 hours (50 core hours of study in Theology, 12 elective hours from Counseling or Theology, and 12 hours transferred from the Counseling core). In order to meet degree requirements for the M.S., the student must complete a minimum number of 60 hours (54 core hours of study in Counseling and 6 hours from Counseling or Theology as transfer elective credit).
Applicants must meet the admissions requirements for the McAfee School of Theology and Penfield College’s Master of Science in Clinical Mental Health Counseling. This includes a minimum passing score on the Graduate Record Exam (GRE) or on the Miller Analogy Test (MAT) and interviews as requested. Students must apply to and be accepted into each program. Admission into one program does not guarantee admission into the other.

Penfield College Entrance Requirements include:

- $35 Non-refundable Application Fee ($50 for International Applicants)
  Submit the required application fee in the form of a check or money order made payable to Mercer University. Do not send cash. The application fee is nonrefundable and cannot apply toward tuition. Former or current students of Mercer University need not submit another application fee.

- MAT or GRE Test Score
  All applicants must take the Millers Analogy Test (MAT) or the Graduate Record Examination (GRE) and achieve a qualifying score. For example, you may submit a copy of the unofficial score report given at the time the test was taken (sometimes referred to as the "walk-out score report") or a copy of your examinees score report received through the mail. This will allow the admissions department to begin the file evaluation process. This does not replace the requirement of an official score report for those applicants who are offered admission.

- Transcripts from All Previously Attended Institutions
  Submit an official transcript from each college and university previously attended. Transcripts are required for both undergraduate (including summer school and studies abroad) and graduate course work, regardless of length of stay or if the grades are listed on another school's transcript. The traditional format is designed as a two-year program with a maximum of fifteen (15) credit hours per semester (Fall/Spring) in traditional format and at least one summer term with six (6) hours credit.

The online/hybrid format is designed as a three-year program with a maximum of twelve (12) credit hours per semester (Fall/Spring) and at least one summer term with six (6) hours credit.

In order to meet degree requirements for the M.A.C.M., the student must complete a minimum of 38 hours (at least 29 core hours of study in Theology and at least 9 hours from Penfield). In order to meet degree requirements for the M.S., the student must complete a minimum number of 31 hours (at least 28 core hours of study in Penfield and 3 hours from McAfee). The final three hours may be taken as an elective at either Theology or Penfield.

The combined M.A.C.M./M.S. is designed to prepare students for competent leadership in congregational life and nonprofit organizations. It develops theological understanding paired with practical skills needed to navigate the intersection of non-profit work and faith communities. It is ideal for bi-vocational and part-time ministers, lay leaders, and nonprofit organization professionals.

The combined M.A.C.M./M.S. degrees integrate preparation for ministry and lay leadership with preparation for leadership in the nonprofit sector. The combination of the M.S. in organizational leadership with our M.A.C.M. curriculum prepares graduates for a successful leadership career in ministry and in the high-growth nonprofit sector through the acquisition of key skills associated with promotion, strategic planning, fund development, board governance, and recruitment.

*Meets Cultural Context Course requirement
The Christian imagination finds itself confronted with a picture, a theological image in which God, humanity and world form a divine nexus. Believers have reasons for thinking that they live in this nexus, just as they have reasons for assuming that it offers guidance for political life. Are Christians supposed to withdraw from a corrupted world that was abandoned by the Redeemer? Are Christians called upon to rule the earthly city with both church and state, inspired by the Holy Spirit? Or are believers expected to build a New Jerusalem that would hasten the Messiah’s return? These sorts of questions populate the field “political theology.” Major historic events in the history of Christianity and the theo-politicians who contributed to these watershed interpretations will be examined. THSP 713. Postmodern African-American Spiritualities (3 hours)

Prerequisite(s): None.

Meets Cultural Context Course requirement

This course explores the increasing shift away from organized religion among African American Christians, most notably millennials, racial/gender activists, and womanist scholar/practitioners. As many historically white churches have been merging, downsizing, and in some cases closing their doors permanently as their memberships age and pass away, African American congregations have appeared more stable, buttressed by the centrality of faith and the supportive role of churches in the daily lives of many African Americans, as well as by the international growth in Pentecostalism. This relative congregational stability has obscured the increasingly tenuous relationship that many African Americans have with Christian congregations and the complex spiritualties that are emerging. In this class, we will utilize fiction, memoir, and popular music to demonstrate the continuity between millennial and womanist/feminist critiques of Christianity. We will examine how African Americans are drawing upon rabbinic Midrash, African, and Eastern traditions to broaden their personal faith commitments and to articulate postmodern spiritualties. (Offered occasionally)

This course examines the human predicament of alienation from God, from oneself and from others. The primary metaphors of the Christian tradition “sin and bondage of the will” are examined through a survey of biblical theology and the Western Christian tradition. The course emphasizes the need for a culturally relevant Christian understanding of atonement and reconciliation in light of the life, ministry and death of Jesus Christ. (Offered occasionally)

THTP 604. Models of God (3 hours)
Prerequisite(s): THTP 500 or advanced placement/permission of instructor.
Models of God are central to the identity of any culture, nation, tribe, and family or self. This course asks a series of questions related to this assumption. What is the psychological and sociological basis for our search and need for the sacred? How does the religious tradition of Israel identify its understandings of God? How is the human search for the sacred formulated in a distinctively Christian understanding of God? What are the necessary components of a Christian understanding of God? This class attempts to identify the pivotal turning points in history of the Western Christian understanding of God. (Offered occasionally) terminology and ways of creating composite metaphors and image schemes for use in worship, prayer and devotional settings. (Offered occasionally)

THTP 606. Theology & Science
(3 hours)
Prerequisite(s): THTP 500 or advanced placement/permission of instructor.
This course provides an introduction to the religious view of “the Self” and its interface with contemporary science. Religion as a cultural activity is linked with the creation and maintenance of certain kinds of self-conceptions. Religion transforms biological human identity into a supernatural related self through the use of symbols. Science is called upon to describe the “what am I” question or biological identity while religious language and theology focus on the “who am I” question of supernatural identity. It is the interplay between the languages of science and theology that we see the emergence of the responsible self who asks, “How should I act” within the community. This course encourages cross-cultural communication as a context whereby participants will benefit from the diverse backgrounds and knowledge of others. This will lead to a broader and hopefully wiser understanding of oneself. (Offered occasionally)

THTP 607. Christology
(3 hours)
Prerequisite(s): THTP 500 or advanced placement/permission of instructor.
This course surveys the nature and person of Jesus Christ as recorded in the canonical Gospels and the epistles of the New Testament noting the developing discussion in the post-biblical councils and contemporary reformulations. Primary considerations include the relationship of Jesus' nature and person with the nature and person of God. The course concludes with an examination of contemporary Christological debates and their impact on the church. (Offered occasionally)

THTP 608. Ecclesiology
(3 hours)
Prerequisite(s): THTP 500 or advanced placement/permission of instructor.
This course examines the purpose, nature and mission of the Church. Ecclesiology deals with the church's origin, its relationship to the life, ministry and teaching of Jesus; its role in salvation, its discipline, its destiny, and its leadership. The course will seek to address the various models and manifestations of the church in a variety of global and historical contexts. The course concludes with creative reflection on how might the church reconfigure itself for the future. (Offered occasionally)

THTP 609. Eschatology
(3 hours)
Prerequisite(s): THTP 500 or advanced placement/permission of instructor.
This course surveys the branch of Christian theology devoted to the study of “Last Things.” The major issues and events in Christian eschatology are death and the afterlife, Heaven and Hell, the Parousia (Second Coming of Jesus), the Resurrection of the Dead, the Rapture, the Tribulation, the end of the world, the Last Judgment, and the New Heaven and New Earth of the World to Come. This course examines how Christian views of history and the end-times have influenced Western and Global Christianity in the fields of politics, religious movements, and literature. (Offered occasionally)

THTP 610. Faith & Atheisms
(3 hours)
Prerequisite(s): THTP 500 or advanced placement/permission of instructor.
This course examines the growing cultural interest in the multi-dimensional claims of Atheism and asks how the community-of-those-committed-to-Christ reads this cultural event and responds appropriately. The course surveys the atheist critiques of religion in order to analyze observations about the sometimes disreputable functions of religious practice and belief. While the current attention tends to focus on “atheisms of science” by authors like Daniel Dennett, Richard Dawkins, and Christopher Hitchens, this course will also examine historical figures such as Freud, Marx, Nietzsche and that of Thomas Altizer, Richard Rubenstein and Slavoj Zizek respectfully. (Offered occasionally)

THTP 708. Theology After the Holocaust
(3 hours)
Prerequisite(s): THTP 500 or advanced placement/permission of instructor.
Cross-listed as: THET 708.
This course is a critical consideration of the moral, religious, and theological implications of Nazi Germany’s “war against the Jews” --the intentional and calculated destruction of some 6 million European Jews (accompanied by the enormous suffering and losses experienced by other “undesirable” groups), which is referred to as the Shoah, or Holocaust. The course considers the psychological and social worldviews of those “victimized,” “the executioners,” and the “bystanders.” Contemporary Jewish and Christian theologies are analyzed to understand the challenges of this tragic history on both religious communities. (Offered occasionally)

THTP 709. Theology and Ethnography
(3 hours)
Prerequisite(s): THTP 500 or advanced placement/permission of instructor.
This course assumes that Theology without concrete access to how believers live can be empty. The language of theology requires that which is not always explicitly theological language (behavior, will, perception, images, time, space, sight, sound, and the gesturing body) in order for language about God to be relevant; theology needs detailed study of these phenomena in actual communities. Ethnographic research is a fruitful means by which this manner of embedded theological interpretation makes this interface possible. The course teaches ethnographic interviewing as a process for reflection on embedded theology in a local context. (Offered occasionally)

THTP 710. Theology & Economics
(3 hours)
Prerequisite(s): THTP 500 or advanced placement/permission of instructor.
Cross-listed as: THET 710.
*Meets Cultural Context Course requirement
This course examines the relationship between Christian Theology and economics on the assumption that economics and economy are not value free from the extra-economic realms of culture and religion. This course claims that economics is subordinate to theology in the sense that theological concerns set the moral parameters for the functioning of the market. Key theorists and theologians are reviewed including Adam Smith, Karl Marx, Hayek, Keynes, Freidman, and Deleuze in the field of economics, and Augustine, Aquinas, Novak, Berger, Stephen D. Long, and Philip Goodchild in theology. (Offered occasionally)

THTP 714. Political Theology
(3 hours)
Prerequisite(s): THTP 500 or advanced placement/permission of instructor.
Cross-listed as: THET 714.
*Meets Cultural Context Course requirement
The Christian imagination finds itself confronted with a picture, a theological image in which God, humanity and world form a divine nexus. Believers have reasons for thinking that they live in this nexus, just as they have reasons for assuming that it offers guidance for political life. Are Christians supposed to withdraw from a corrupted world that was abandoned by the Redeemer? Are Christians called upon to rule the earthly city with both church and state, inspired by the Holy Spirit? Or are believers expected to build a New Jerusalem that would hasten the Messiah’s return? These sorts of questions populate the field “political theology.” Major historic events in the history of Christianity and the theo-politicians who contributed to these watershed interpretations will be examined. (Offered occasionally)

THTP 800. Special Topics: Subtitle

May be repeated with different subtopics.

(Offered occasionally)

DOCTOR OF MINISTRY (D.MIN.) DEGREE PROGRAM

The Doctor of Ministry degree is a three-to-four-year, 33-hour degree program and is the highest professional degree offered by a theological school. The Doctor of Ministry degree presupposes the M.Div. degree and constitutes an advanced professional degree at the doctoral level available to those seeking to enhance their ministry. Thus, it is the purpose of the D.Min. degree to provide the level of knowledge, theoretical clarity, and competence of practice commensurate with the highest earned degree for the profession and practice of ministry. Specializations in Preaching and Christian Spirituality are also available through the D.Min. degree. Thirty-three hours are required for completion of the D.Min. degree.

The McAfee School of Theology’s program invites ministers, denominational leaders, and persons in a variety of ministries to join with colleagues in working for excellence in ministerial leadership.
within the local church by focusing on the spiritual life of the minister, the continual development of learning in the discipline of ministry, and the praxis of ministry in everyday situations.

The D.Min. degree at McAfee emphasizes collegial learning with professors and peers, intense study in a variety of subjects designed and taught specifically for Doctor of Ministry students, a three semester program of analysis of ministry competencies within a ministry setting with a ministry coach and faculty supervisor, and a final written project thesis with a focus on a particular aspect of ministry. The McAfee Doctor of Ministry challenges a person in ministry to seek his or her best in response to God's calling in Jesus Christ.

The focus of the program is to cultivate in students a theologically-informed praxis of ministry that manifests the unity and interrelatedness of theory and practice. All acts of ministry are seen in the light of an informed theological vision of the nature and mission of the church in the world, and in turn, the actual practice of ministry continually shapes and reforms that theological vision.

Areas of Specialization
The Doctor of Ministry faculty of McAfee School of Theology is diverse in its expertise in academic disciplines, practical experience in ministry, and interests in topics for a Project Thesis. Every effort will be made to accommodate the interests and needs of students within the limits of faculty teaching and supervisory loads. The Associate Dean will consult with each student to determine which faculty member to approach to become his or her faculty supervisor. After positive communication from the Associate Dean, the student will initiate communication with the faculty member requesting supervision for the remainder of the program.

Ministry in its multiple facets is the focus of the program. The following areas are the primary areas of available supervision for the program. Total required for D.Min. Degree Program: 33 hours

D.Min. Program Overview

Faculty Supervision

Each student in the D. Min. program will work with a Faculty Supervisor in his or her area of specialization. Supervisors provide advising in the program process, collaboration on experiential learning modules integrating research and ministry, and supervision of the Project Thesis. A faculty supervisor will be suggested in consultation with the student and the Associate Dean.

All students must be assigned to a faculty supervisor prior to beginning the program. Changes may be made in Faculty Supervision if the student’s Project Thesis proposal changes or requests are made to the Associate Dean. Normally, Faculty Supervisors may teach only one D.Min. seminar in an academic year and are limited to a supervisory load of five students per year.

The student should recognize the teaching load of the faculty supervisor and understand that all consultations must be by appointment. The use of e-mail is encouraged since it provides documentation of faculty-student interaction and collaboration.

The faculty supervisor has jurisdiction over all grades given during the experiential learning units, the Project Thesis, and oral examination. The Faculty Supervisor will recommend to the Associate Dean of the D.Min. Program that a student be allowed to graduate upon completion of all degree requirements.

Experiential Learning Units

A variety of learning experiences to enhance one’s knowledge and practice in ministry are completed as a core part of the degree. These units are completed in the student’s place of ministry and do not require an on-campus presence. A Ministry Coach, Preaching Consultant, or Spiritual Director works with the student in each ELU and serves on the student’s oral defense committee.
Coaches, Consultants, and Directors must have advanced degrees and extensive expertise in their areas.

Seminars

Students will attend three D.Min. seminars of two weeks' duration each on campus. The seminars will normally be scheduled for the summer term, but may be scheduled at other times of the year depending on enrollment in the program. Each seminar will be a combination of core requirements of reading, reports on readings, written presentations integrating the seminar subject with one’s ministry, and additional readings and assignments negotiated with each student. Students are encouraged to focus their reading, presentations, and other assignments upon their specific areas of specialization. A variety of assignments may be expected including case studies, research papers on a ministry topic, or examples of ministry from one’s setting (sermons, verbatim, organizational analyses, contextual studies, coaching process, issues of spirituality, etc). All students are required to register for the appropriate Seminar Preparation in the semester prior to the scheduled seminar with completion of the core preparation prior to the scheduled seminar. The additional student-negotiated research and writing for the seminar will be complete on a schedule approved by the seminar faculty leader.

Students in the Christian Spirituality specialization have a different seminar structure from all other students in the program. Two specific seminars in Christian Spirituality are required, as well as one additional seminar.

Seminars may be completed in any sequence. Normally each student will complete one seminar each year of the three-year program. A common syllabus has been developed by the faculty for each seminar and will be available to the student at the beginning of the semester of each unit of Seminar Preparation.

Institutional Review Board

Because student research will involve human subjects in some way (for example through surveys and interviews), students will be required to complete a statement of their methods and purpose for review by the Institutional Review Board of Mercer University. An IRB performs critical regulatory oversight functions for research conducted on human subjects to ensure such research is scientific and ethical. It may be helpful to know that a key to obtaining IRB approval of the research process is anonymity of the subjects.

Attention will be given in the workshop to the IRB process at Mercer University. Students will be required to complete an online certification process during the workshop that acquaints them with legal requirements for research with human subjects. The process of completion and certification will be covered in the Project Thesis Workshop.

Please review prior to the seminar the following brief documents at www2.mercer.edu/ResearchCompliance/IRB: “What Constitutes Research,” “Investigator Guide,” and “Types of IRB Review,” with attention within that document to “ Expedited Review.”

It is recommended the Project Thesis Workshops be taken relatively early in the program. At least one seminar and one experiential learning unit are prerequisite to registration for the first workshop. Each workshop will be scheduled for one week, M-F sequentially. Students may enroll for either or both, as long as Workshop I is completed before Workshop II.
Completion of a Project Thesis Proposal worthy of submission to the D. Min. Committee is required for the completion of Project Thesis II. If both seminars are completed together, expectations of both classes must be met within the time frame of the course.

Project Thesis

The culmination of the D.Min. program is the completion of a Project Thesis. The Project Thesis should reflect the research skills learned in the program and demonstrate the student’s capacity to integrate biblical, theological, historical, and contextual research with a specific ministry project that is practical and reflective of the student’s abilities as a leader and minister.

It is recommended the Project Thesis Workshops (one hour credit per workshop) be taken relatively early in the program. At least one seminar and Experiential Learning Unit are prerequisites to enrollment in the workshops. Each workshop will be scheduled for one week, M-F sequentially. The workshops will guide the student in the processes of conceptualizing a ministry project including the specific ministry to be performed, foundational academic research related to it, and social research methods for analysis and evaluation. Attention will be given to the development of a Project Thesis Proposal, Mercer University expectations for Institutional Review Board (IRB) approval, necessary writing skills, and form and style expectations of the school will be reviewed. Completion of a Project Thesis Proposal worthy of submission to the D.Min. Committee is required for the completion of Project Thesis Workshop II.

The D.Min. Committee has established guidelines for the submission of Project Thesis Proposals following completion of Project Methodology Workshop and prior to beginning the writing of the Project Thesis.

Once the Project Thesis Proposal is approved, including IRB approval, the student may begin writing. The Faculty Supervisor will provide primary feedback to chapters submitted in the writing stage, though it is recommended the student share written work with his/her Ministry Coach/Preaching Consultant/Spiritual Guide to solicit reactions. Formal Faculty Supervision for Thesis Writing is available for three units during which the student must be registered for Project Thesis Writing.

Style and Form

Each proposal should follow BOTH the McAfee Style Guide and Mercer University Theses & Dissertation Guidelines. Where there are differences, follow the Mercer University guidelines.

The proposal should include:

Cover Page

Table of Contents of the anticipated final document. The committee prefers the inclusion of chapter titles and headings that communicate the content of the chapter. General titles such as “Biblical Foundations for the Project” are less preferable than “The Parables as a Format for Effective Preaching.”

Content as outlined in the “D,Min. Project Thesis Proposal” guide.

An Informed Consent Form.
Copies of ALL instruments to be used such as surveys, interview schedules, etc., with each identified as an Appendix.

Bibliography of all work anticipated for inclusion in the Project Thesis. Do not separate the bibliography into sections that divide the final thesis from works consulted for the proposal.

The D.Min. Committee prefers succinctly written and clearly stated proposals that do not exceed 15 double-spaced pages of descriptive text plus Table of Contents, Appendixes, and Bibliography.

You must have e-mail confirmation of approval of the proposal by your Faculty Supervisor.

Submit Word document by email to the Doctor of Ministry office.

One copy of the application for IRB approval of the project, and a copy of the certification of completion of the online instructions for human subject research must accompany the proposal. After the proposal is approved by the D.Min. Committee, IRB approval of the project may be sought.

The D.Min. Committee meets monthly August-May. You must submit your materials no later than 10 calendar days prior to the meeting of the committee at which you wish to have it reviewed. Dates of committee meetings are available from the D. Min. office. You may expect a copy of your proposal with notes and a cover letter of the action of the committee in the mail within a week of the committee’s meeting where action is taken.

The committee may act in three ways:

- Approval
- Approval with changes
- Changes required with re-submission

If the proposal is approved, the candidate may proceed to secure IRB approval, implement the proposed ministry, and begin writing the Project Thesis. Approval with changes means that he/she must make the changes in the proposal, then secure IRB approval, and continue to complete the Project Thesis. If changes required with re-submission are noted, the student must resubmit the proposal and may not proceed until a second reading by the committee. If, for any reason the student is denied approval the second time, he/she must retake the Project Thesis Workshops and re-submit a new proposal. Denial of a second re-submission results in termination from the program.

Guidelines for Project Thesis Chapters

Generally, the project thesis should flow from the first chapter to the conclusion of the work (the so-called “golden thread”). Make sure that each chapter builds on the previous chapter and that the theme of the work continues in each chapter. Below are suggested components. It is the responsibility of the student to outline each chapter and to decide how many chapters are needed – usually either four or five.

Chapter One introduces the project thesis. It should provide background on your topic, clarify all definitions used in the project, and list limitations and assumptions related to the project. The purpose of the ministry project should be clear. State briefly the goals of the project, as well as the methodology and research methods the study anticipates. You will expand on these later (about 8-10 pages). Chapter One must include the proposed title, an introduction/background for the problem, the statement of the problem, purpose, research questions/hypotheses, significance of the study, procedures (type of study, data collection methods, etc.), limitations, and definition of terms. A “mock” version of this chapter will be created in Project Thesis Workshop I.

Chapter Two addresses the biblical, theological, and historical foundations of the work (e.g., what does the Bible and theological and historical traditions have to say about the subject under discussion). Chapter Two will also demonstrate an understanding and knowledge of any related literature (about 16-20 pages). A preliminary version of this chapter is created in Ministry Coaching III.

Chapter Three sets forth your analysis of context you are studying and describes your methodology. You should describe in detail both the community and the ministry setting (description of the congregation/organization), analyze the role(s) for which you are responsible, and identify the most significant challenges needing attention within the ministry setting. Sociological data (e.g. demographics) are included in this section and your research instruments are explained. You will also detail how you plan to undertake the research, including the type of study (qualitative or quantitative), the research design (case study, mixed method, correlation, etc.), the IRB process, method(s) for data collection, the population and sample under study, and how the data will be analyzed (about 15-20 pages). A preliminary version of this chapter is created in Ministry Coaching II.

Chapter Four examines your research and tests your thesis. Detail any changes to your planned research process and explain the effect of those changes. Report and analyze the data. Interpret and clarify the impact on your thesis. Be clear about your findings, including the strengths and weaknesses of your methodology (about 20 pages).

Chapter Five consists of the conclusions you draw from your research. It is also the chapter where you share with the reader new directions of study or visions, and where you lay out in detail new programs or show the success of your findings. It is also where you show the impact of your study on your ministry and, possibly on the ministry of others. All implications of the work are made clear (about 10 - 15 pages).

Appendices (survey instruments, graphs, charts, forms, letters).

Bibliography

Yearly deadlines for submission of theses and dissertations to the chief academic officer of the university are November 1, April 1, and July 1. Please review the Mercer University web site of the Provost office for information about guidelines, templates, and samples.

Writing Style

Because written work in a doctoral program must be of the highest standard, the judicial use of the following is recommended:

1. A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses and Dissertations, eighth edition, by Kate L. Turabian. All written work should be in conformity with this manual, unless decided otherwise with an instructor.
Any candidate who needs help in writing should pursue help from a professional or enroll in a class, if necessary, before attempting to enter the program. At the doctoral level, no allowances will be made for poor writing skills.

MERCER UNIVERSITY STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT
Changes may be made to the Student Code of Conduct during the school year. The most up-to-date and complete version can be found in the University Student Handbook at www.mercer.edu/provost/handbooks

COMMUNITY OF RESPECT
Mercer University strives to be a Community of Respect where everyone is held in mutual high regard. Because every human being is created in the image of God, each person deserves to be treated with respect and civility. Standards of conduct are based on the values of mutual respect:

Respect for Academic Integrity
We value a community that encourages an academic atmosphere. We believe that honesty is important to learning.

Respect for Other Persons
We value the worth of every individual in the community and we respect the dignity of each member in the community. We take responsibility for the consideration of the rights of others.

Respect for the University Community
We value showing respect for the rights and property of others. We take responsibility to act to maintain University property.

Respect for Community Authority
We acknowledge and value our privileges and rights as members of the University community. We take responsibility for acting to uphold community standards.

These values are codified into the following Student Code of Conduct, which includes a general overview of the process, a listing of unacceptable student conduct, possible sanctions, and other key information. This Student Code of Conduct applies to all students on all campuses, including online programs, and supersedes any student conduct policies and procedures previously used by colleges or programs. Program-specific regulations and policies (including professional standards) may apply to students beyond those outlined here and may be found in supplemental handbooks. Nothing in this policy prohibits these academic programs from pursuing additional review and action of professional standards as appropriate to their professions. Students are expected to be aware of and conduct themselves in a manner that is in compliance with all applicable policies found in the University Student Handbook and related campus supplements. Academic violations are handled through a separate process found in the academic Honor Code.

FORMULATION OF REGULATIONS & CODE OF CONDUCT
Any student, faculty member, or administrator may initiate any revision of, or addition to, the University standards of conduct. Recommendations should be submitted to the senior student affairs officer on their campus who will evaluate and forward the recommendation to the Vice President for Student Affairs (Macon). The Vice President for Student Affairs, in consultation with appropriate parties, shall ensure discussion of the proposed change. When all parties have had an opportunity to comment on the proposal, it will be presented to the Provost and General Counsel.

RIGHTS OF STUDENTS
Community of Respect ensures certain rights of its members. The University values the following student’s rights:
Free inquiry, expression, and assembly as long as conducted in a manner that does not infringe upon the rights of others.
Freedom from unreasonable invasion of the privacy of the individual’s person, residence, papers, personal effects, and University records.
Right to due process and equal protection under the University’s judicial system.
Freedom to pursue educational goals; the right to free exchange of ideas, thoughts, and viewpoints.
Freedom of association for students who meet the University’s standards for participation in co-curricular and extracurricular activities.

GENERAL POLICY
Mercer University is dedicated to the advancement of knowledge and learning and to the development of ethically responsible persons. University students are expected to uphold appropriate standards of behavior and to respect the rights and privileges of others. The University invites students to participate in the formulation of behavioral policies and to share in the responsibility for judicial decisions. These standards and procedures have been established to protect the University’s educational purpose, to foster a sense of responsibility to the community, to provide for orderly conduct of its activities, to protect the members of the University from disrespect, and to safeguard the interest of the University community. Student conduct is expected to be lawful and in accordance with all federal, state, and local laws, and University regulations.

In keeping with Mercer University’s values, sanctions imposed on students found to be in violation of the Student Code of Conduct are designed to promote the University’s educational mission, maintain community standards, and promote individual civility and positive growth.

Sanctions are also intended to maintain the safety of the University environment and the integrity of the University community. The processes for adjudicating violations of federal, state and local laws and violations of the Student Code of Conduct are separate and may be pursued independently of one another. The University distinguishes its responsibilities for student conduct from the control functions of the wider community. The conduct of students both on campus and in the wider community is ordinarily of University concern when (a) the conduct interferes with the University’s responsibility for ensuring members of the University full and equal opportunity to obtain their educational objectives, (b) the conduct interferes with the University’s responsibility to protect the health, safety and general welfare of persons in the University community, or (c) the conduct negatively impacts the University’s image and/or academic integrity. The University is not required to postpone disciplinary proceedings pending the outcome of any criminal proceeding.

The Student Code of Conduct applies to all University students in settings, which includes, but is not limited to, study abroad, international travel, online, and off-campus educational opportunities. The Vice President for Student Affairs (or designee) may modify non-substantive procedures in the effort to adjudicate violations.

Cases involving student organizations are adjudicated through this process as well. Student organizations will be held responsible for the behavior of their members, alumni, or guests, when their actions evolve from or are in any way related to their association with activities of the organization on or off campus. Student organizations may be charged and adjudicated in addition to any charges levied against the individual members. Student organizations that condone or encourage behavior that violates University or state regulations may be held responsible for such violations.
Authority for student discipline ultimately rests with the University President. For cases involving non-academic conduct violations, the President delegates this authority to the Vice President for Student Affairs (or designee), who in turn delegates it to the following designees to oversee, review, and pursue violations of the Student Code of Conduct.

Students enrolled in online courses will be adjudicated in Macon or Atlanta as determined by the educational program in which they are enrolled. Should conflicts arise, that location will be determined by the Vice President for Students Affairs. Modifications to procedures to adapt to the physical location of the student may be implemented as long as the student is notified of the charges against them and provided with an opportunity to respond to the charges.

The Vice President for Student Affairs (or designee) has the authority to notify the person listed as the student’s emergency contact (or other appropriate person) in cases of emergency or life-threatening incidents.

The Vice President for Student Affairs (or designee) may order any student or organization to cease and desist from any activity adjudged to be disruptive to the University. If the student or organization fails to cease and desist from such activity, the Vice President for Student Affairs (or designee) may immediately suspend the student or organization pending a judicial hearing.

RESPONSIBLE ACTION GUIDELINES

The health and safety of students under the influence of alcohol and/or drugs should always supersede concerns related to conduct violations and/or subsequent University action. The University urges all students to recognize that violations of the law and University policy have consequences, but that these possible consequences should never outweigh or override the decision for providing proper care for the health and wellbeing of a fellow student in crisis.

In a health crisis situation involving alcohol and/or drugs, students are expected to notify appropriate staff to evaluate the situation immediately. Amnesty for minor violations of the student code of conduct will be considered in cases where a student is acting in good faith to rectify a situation, or when the situation involves a more egregious infraction that warrants reporting (for example, sexual misconduct and relationship violence). Amnesty may mean waiving formal judicial action, or imposing less harsh sanctions, and is at the discretion of the Vice President for Student Affairs, Dean of Students or designee.

NON-ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT PROCESS
Procedure for Reporting Violations
All students and student organizations are expected to adhere to the standards of the Community of Respect. In affirmation to these standards, every student subscribes to the following pledge:

"Having been accepted as a member of the Community of Respect of Mercer University, I pledge myself: to hold each person in high mutual regard; to uphold, respect, and defend the rights of every individual in the community; and to respect the community as a whole. I further pledge that I will not allow to go unreported any violation of the standards of our community."
Each student is responsible for reporting any and all infractions of the standards valued by the Community of Respect. All students accept this responsibility when they enroll. If a student sees, knows, or hears of a violation, he/she is responsible for reporting the suspected violation to Mercer Police, the Vice President of Student Affairs, or an appropriate faculty/staff member of Mercer University.

Organizations are expected to investigate and self-report any violations of the Student Code of Conduct. Please refer to the Campus Life web page at http://studentaffairs.mercer.edu/campuslife/studentorgs.cfm.

Procedures for Filing Charges
This process for review is initiated by either (1) the filing of a police report with Mercer University Police Department (or other law enforcement agency), (2) providing a signed written statement directly to the Vice President of Student Affairs (or designee), or (3) by filing an incident report or written statement with the Office of Housing and Residence Life. This information will then be reviewed by the designated authority (listed above) to determine the most appropriate action to be taken. This may result in conducting further investigation into the incident, resolving the conflict in an informal manner, referring the case to Housing, or initiating charges in accordance with the procedures contained in this code. Charges should be filed within ten (10) working days after receipt of all available information regarding the complaint. Charges cannot be filed that exceed one (1) year after the discovery of the incident.

In compliance with Title IX and other related federal mandates, cases involving Sexual Misconduct and Relationship Violence (sexual harassment, sexual assault, sexual exploitation, stalking, dating violence, and domestic violence) may require and involve additional investigatory, procedural, and adjudication standards that supersede any listed here. Please refer to the procedures outlined in the Sexual Misconduct and Relationship Violence Policy for complete information on these procedures. Should any policy or procedural guidelines conflict between these two policies, the Vice President for Student Affairs in consultation with the Title IX Coordinator is the final arbiter of procedural decisions.

Charges
When a determination to charge is made, the designated office (primary designee) shall notify the student in writing of the charge(s) and the allegation(s) on which the charge(s) are based. This notice shall inform the student that he or she has five (5) regular business days in which to contact the designated office outlined in their charge letter to schedule an informational session, and to select the type of hearing forum in which to adjudicate the violation (unless pre-selected by the University). The informational session is a courtesy to students. If a student does not contact the University during this time, the University shall make a determination regarding the choice of hearing and will proceed with adjudication.

HEARING BOARD OPTIONS
The charged student or organization may have charges heard by a University Hearing Board or by a designated University Administrator selected and trained by the Associate/Assistant Dean of Students in Macon or Atlanta. The Hearing Board or Administrator will review the case and make a recommendation to the Associate/Assistant Dean of Students on the Macon and/or Atlanta (depending on primary location of the academic program related to the charged student) with regard to responsibility and sanctioning. In electing one hearing forum, the student waives the right to the other. The University retains the right to pre-select the hearing forum at any point in the process. University Hearing Boards consist of two faculty/staff and one student trained in university judicial proceedings. However, in cases involving especially serious charges that potentially could result in expulsion or suspension, the University may in its discretion require the charges to be heard at a specific campus location, and by a University panel that includes two faculty/staff, one student, and at least one representative from outside the University, to be selected by the University, with experience in contested adversarial hearings.

When two or more individual cases stem from the same incident, the same hearing body shall hear all cases, when possible. Procedural modifications are permitted when incidents involve more than one individual or corresponding organizational charges. In such cases, the University may either pre-select the hearing body or consult with the students involved before making the determination. This hearing body will hear individual cases separately. In cases involving multiple students or organizations charged from the same incident, information obtained at one hearing may be used at another hearing provided that the charged student or organization involved has the opportunity to review and to respond to any information that will be used against them, when possible.

For cases handled by the University’s Office of Judicial Education in Macon, a board consisting of all students is an additional option for adjudicating student and organizational cases. This Student Hearing Board primarily adjudicates organizational violations and minor student violations as determined by the Associate Dean of Students.

Decisions of all hearing bodies (University Hearing Boards and University Administrator) are recommendations to the Associate/Assistant Dean of Students on the corresponding Macon and Atlanta campus, who in the interest of fairness, clarity, or consistency may choose to accept or modify the recommendations as necessary or refer a case back to the hearing body for further review. The Associate/Assistant Dean of Students may consult with appropriate staff or the academic Dean of a particular academic program before accepting or modifying the recommendation of a student in that program.

RIGHTS OF THE CHARGED STUDENTS

Notice. Students or organizations charged with violations of the Student Code of Conduct will be provided notice via their official university e-mail address of the charge(s) against them and the allegations upon which the charge is based.

Hearing. Students or organizations shall be entitled to a prompt hearing. Students will be given an opportunity to present information, including witnesses during a fair and impartial hearing. The student may inspect all documentary evidence presented at the hearing, may hear and question all available adverse witnesses testifying at the hearing, and may present evidence and call witnesses. If a called witness does not appear, the hearing body may consider their written or taped statements. However, the statement shall be weighted accordingly by the hearing body as the charged student has no opportunity to cross examine the witness making the written or recorded statement. Student questioning of witnesses may be modified in cases involving violations of the Sexual Misconduct and Relationship Violence Policy (see next section). Witnesses for the hearing will be required to wait outside of the hearing until their point of participation. The University may require any student or employee with information relevant to the charges to attend the hearing and present that information to the hearing panel for consideration.
In compliance with Title IX and related federal mandates, additional procedural rights for student complainants and respondents involving violations of the Sexual Misconduct and Relationship Violence Policy apply and are outlined below.

RIGHTS FOR CASES INVOLVING SEXUAL MISCONDUCT AND RELATIONSHIP VIOLENCE (SUPPLEMENTAL)

When complaints are resolved through the University student judicial process related to sexual harassment, sexual assault, sexual exploitation, stalking, dating violation and domestic violence, the following rights will apply to both the complainant and to the respondent:

- To be accompanied by an advisor or person of support of their choice. (See additional advisement information in the “Conduct Hearing Guidelines” in the Student Code of Conduct).
- To have an equal opportunity to present witnesses and evidence, as well as to speak on one’s behalf.
- To be made aware that responsibility for charges is determined using the “preponderance of the evidence” standard.
- To have similar and timely access to information. All information is subject to FERPA protection and stipulations.
- To submit questions to the hearing body to consider posing to the complainant, respondent, and/or witnesses.
- For the complainant to be able to request alternative methods of inquiry (e.g. written questions or video conferencing) if needed when presenting testimony.
- To have any non-relevant sexual history exempt from review. Decisions regarding relevancy issues will be determined by the hearing body.
- To be notified in writing regarding the outcome of the complaint at every step of the process (I.e. Initial hearing and any appeals). The University will not impose any "non-disclosure requirement" on either party as a condition for sharing this information.
- To have the right to appeal the outcome as outlined in the appeal process. Both the complainant and respondent are permitted one appeal.
- To be free from harassment and/or retaliation during the process. This includes harassment and retaliation through third parties.
- To submit an impact statement to be considered by the hearing body before the sanctioning phase to be used if the Respondent is found responsible.

CONDUCT HEARING GUIDELINES

All hearings are governed by the following guidelines. Procedures may be modified to expedite the proceeding as long as they do not jeopardize the charged student’s fundamental rights or the fairness of the hearing.

- Burden of Proof: The burden of proof rests with the University. The standard of proof shall be the “preponderance of the evidence.” This standard means that the evidence, taken as a whole, supports that it is more likely than not that the violation occurred.

- Pre-hearing informational session: To assist the student in preparing for the hearing, a pre-hearing informational session will be available for the student. The informational session is a courtesy to students and not a requirement. This informational session will discuss the hearing procedures, inform the student of their rights and responsibilities, and allow the student the opportunity to review the available written information that will be presented at the hearing by the University. The student and his or her advisor shall have the opportunity to inspect the information at least three (3) regular business days in advance of the hearing whenever possible. Upon notification of the student’s choice for a hearing body, the university shall schedule a hearing and notify the student in writing of the date, time, and location of the hearing at least three (3) regular business days in advance. A student may choose to waive, in writing, the three (3) regular business day notice and proceed with a hearing.

Decisions. Decisions of “responsible” or “not responsible” on the charge(s) shall be based solely on the evidence presented at the hearing. When multiple students are charged with the same violation and it is determined that an individual identified was not responsible for that specific violation, but was present and/or had knowledge that the violation was occurring, the hearing board/officer has the authority to find that student responsible for the lesser charge of “failure to report” without recharging the student and having a separate hearing. Information can be conveyed from one hearing to the other in cases where multiple students are charged.

Confidentiality. All hearings shall be closed and confidential unless specifically requested otherwise by the charged student in writing. This request must be received three regular business days in advance of the hearing and cannot impede the university’s ability to comply with state and federal laws regarding confidential information. In cases involving violations of the Sexual Misconduct and Relationship Violence Policy and/or with competing interest, the Associate/Assistant Dean of Students will make the final determination regarding open and closed hearings in consultation with Vice President for Student Affairs and the Title IX Coordinator.

Failure to Appear. If the charged student fails to appear at the hearing, the hearing may proceed in the student’s absence and a decision rendered provided that the student has been properly notified of the hearing.

Official Record. An official record of the hearing shall be made by the presiding hearing officer for internal University use only. The record of the hearing may exist in written or audible form. No transcript is made. Students may request to inspect their record of testimony and case file after the hearing is closed. Records will be redacted to protect other students’ FERPA rights. Written records are kept on file for 7 years.

Deliberations. Deliberations are closed and shall include only those members involved in the decision making process.

Notice of Decision. A written decision shall be available to the student or organization within seven (7) regular business days following the hearing. This time may be extended in cases in which additional time is necessary for deliberations. If additional time is necessary, the charged student or organization shall be notified. The decision letter shall contain a decision on each charge, the finding of fact and any recommended sanctions (if applicable).

Hold on Student’s Records. The university may place a hold on the transcripts and/or registration of any student who fails to respond to a judicial notice or to ensure resolution of the case prior to transfer or graduation. All pending judicial matters must be resolved prior to a student’s graduation, transfer from, or continued education at Mercer University.

Withholding Degree. —The University may withhold awarding a degree otherwise earned until the completion of the process set forth in the Student Conduct Code, including the completion of all sanctions, if any.
Disabilities. Any student with a documented disability may request that reasonable accommodations be provided during the judicial process. This request must be made at least three (3) regular business days in advance of the hearing, and the accommodations must be approved by the Office of ACCESS and Accommodation and the Associate Dean of Students.

Advisement. Students and organizations are permitted to bring one advisor of their choice to the hearing. The advisor shall serve as a consultant, and cannot speak on behalf of the student or organization during the proceedings. Students are required to address the hearing body in person on their own behalf. Consultation must take place in a manner that does not disrupt the proceedings. The advisor shall not serve as a witness or be charged in the case. Students must notify the Associate/Assistant Dean of Students on the applicable campus at least five class days prior to the hearing if they will be bringing an attorney as an advisor.

Testimony. Students shall not be forced to present self-incriminating testimony. Testimony that is provided during a hearing can be used in another hearing if those details are relevant to clarifying details in those proceedings and only if the cases are connected to the same incident.

VIOLATIONS OF THE VALUES OF THE COMMUNITY OF RESPECT
Violation of any of the following, or the aiding, abetting, condoning, or attempting to commit these offenses by a student constitutes an offense that will result in disciplinary action. Such conduct includes two or more acts by which the stalker directly, or indirectly, or through third parties follows, monitors, observes, surveils, threatens, or communicates about a person or interferes with his or her property

Dating Violence A violent act committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the complainant. [The University retains the right to find a student responsible for this charge in lieu of another if the hearing body determines that the student(s) involvement was sufficiently passive and/or warrants consideration for this lesser charge for any reason. In such cases, the University is not required to recharge the student or rehear the case to find the student responsible for this charge.]

Warning: Formal written notice to the student and official recognition that a violation has occurred.

Counseling Assessment: A recommendation to be evaluated by psychological services to help the student deal more effectively with his/her conduct issue.

Community Service: Performance of a preapproved service location for a prescribed number of hours to the local or university community.
Creative/Educational Sanctions: Attendance at educational programs, interviews with appropriate officials, planning and implementing educational programs, research papers and other educational activities related to the violation.

Restriction: The withdrawal of specified privilege(s) for a definite period of time. Restrictions may include, but are not limited to requirements such as: not entering certain areas of housing or the campus, not contacting a certain individual or group, or not operating a motor vehicle on campus.

Fines: Not to exceed $150 per individual or $150 per individual member of an organization.
Restitution: A payment of financial injury in cases involving theft, destruction or property or deception.

Probation: A period of time during which any further violations of the Student Code of Conduct may impact or jeopardize the student’s status in a specific manner. The four types of probation that can be imposed are as follows:

Conduct Probation. A specified period of time in which any future violations of the Student Code of Conduct can result in increased sanctions being imposed that exceed those of a student who is not on conduct probation.

Housing Probation. A specified period of time in which any future violations of the Student Code of Conduct will result in the termination of housing privileges and access to any university owned housing facilities.

Social Probation. Notice to an organization or student that all or a portion of social functions must cease for a designated period of time.

Additional violations of the Student Code of Conduct that occur during this period of probation may result in suspension or dismissal. Continued enrollment depends on the maintenance of satisfactory conduct during the period of probation.

Eviction from University Housing. Permanent removal from the housing system.

Suspension. The termination of the student’s attendance or an organization’s representation at the university for an indefinite or specified period of time. A suspension means that students may not be on University property or that an organization is prohibited from being recognized at any time without prior approval from the Vice President for Student Affairs or designee. Stipulations may be applied to either the student or organization as a condition for ending the suspension.

Expulsion. The permanent separation of the student from the University.

Deferred Degree. The holding of an academic degree for a specified period of time with or without conditions.

APPEALS PROCEDURE

For cases involving non-academic appeals, a student may appeal the original decision to the Vice President for Student Affairs within three (3) working days after receipt of the written decision (additional time may be requested for extenuating circumstances). The Vice President may choose to hear the appeal or designate an appropriate staff member from the academic program or location in which the student is enrolled to review the appeal and make a recommendation. No person may hear or decide an appeal if he or she participated in the hearing process. The appeal shall consist of a review of the prior proceedings; it shall not be another hearing. The student or organization shall receive a written decision regarding the appeal.

Grounds for appealing a decision are:
An error in procedural due process, which prejudiced the accused to the extent that the student or organization was denied a fundamentally fair hearing as a result of the error. Procedural flaws alone are not grounds for an appeal. Significant procedural errors that may have affected the verdict or sanction will be considered.

The emergence of new evidence that could not have been previously discovered and that, had it been represented at the initial hearing, would have substantially affected the original decision of the hearing body.

The imposition of sanctions that are disproportionate to the offense.

Student status. The student’s status on campus will remain unchanged pending the final decision and appeals process, except in cases involving interim suspensions (see Interim Suspension). The Vice President shall have the authority to act de novo to determine the issues of both responsibility and sanction(s). The decision of the Vice President for Student Affairs is final.

INTERIM SUSPENSION OF A STUDENT OR ORGANIZATION
In certain circumstances involving a student or organizations actions that may affect the safety, health, or general welfare of the student or the university community, the Vice President for Students Affairs, or the Associate/Assistant Dean of Students, or Student Affairs designee on each campus may impose an interim suspension prior to the student or organizations conduct hearing. The Vice President of Student Affairs, the Associate/Assistant Dean of Students, Student Affairs designee on each campus, and the Director of Housing and Residence Life have the authority to cancel a student’s university housing contract under a separate process.

An interim suspension means that a student cannot be on university property, cannot attend classes, and cannot use university facilities unless otherwise stipulated. An interim suspension requires that the student or organization be notified in writing by the university. For organizations it means immediate suspension of all or some of the activities associated with the organization as determined by the university.

The student or organization has the right to request a hearing on the interim suspension with the Vice President for Student Affairs. If requested, the hearing will be conducted within three (3) regular business days from the receipt of the student’s written request by the Vice President for Student Affairs or designee. The scope of this hearing is solely on whether the interim suspension should continue until a hearing is conducted on the facts of the case. Disciplinary charges will be filed either when the interim suspension is imposed or as soon as possible thereafter.

For cases in which a student is placed on interim suspension, but subsequently found not responsible for all violations, the university will take the following steps: (1) correct any record of the change in enrollment status in the student’s permanent records and reports in a manner compliant with state and federal laws; and (2) refund to the student a pro rata portion of any fees, charges for tuition, or other university specific fees and charges, as appropriate due to the temporary change in enrollment status.

NON-ACADEMIC CONDUCT RECORDS
The Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs in Macon and Dean of Students in Atlanta are the official custodian of all records involving non-academic misconduct. Student files involving cases that do not result in suspensions or expulsions shall be expunged seven (7) years after a decision is reached on a charge. Cases that result in suspensions or expulsions will be kept permanently. Statistical data and database information may be kept permanently at the university.
Students have the right to view their files. Students found “not responsible” or cases in which charges are dropped are considered not to have a judicial record.

PARENTAL NOTIFICATION POLICY
Mercer University, like many other colleges and universities, is concerned about the health and safety of its students specifically where there is use and abuse of drugs and alcohol. Under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), institutions are permitted to release any and all information to parents, without the consent of the student, “if the student is a dependent for tax purposes under the IRS rules.” FERPA allows colleges and universities to disclose information to parents if there is a health or safety emergency involving their student as well as to disclose information if the student is under the age of 21 and “has violated any law or policy concerning the use or possession of alcohol or a controlled substance.” The Vice President for Student Affairs or designee will be the responsible University official to contact the parent or guardian. Students whose parents are divorced or separated have the option of designating the parent to be contacted. The Vice President for Students Affairs or designee may use discretion regarding parental notification in incidents where it is determined that extenuating circumstances exist that would directly and conclusively impact the situation negatively. Alternative guardian contact determinations will be made by the Vice President for Student Affairs or designee. The process of adjudicating any violations will be handled in accordance with the Student Code of Conduct.

Mercer University has opted to contact parents and/or legal guardians under the following conditions:

Mercer students, under the age of 21, found responsible for first time minor offenses involving alcohol in accordance with the Student Code of Conduct will be dealt with directly, without notification of their parents. “Minor offenses” are defined as non-life-threatening, non-threatening to the community, and not involving any other significant violations of the law or the Student Code of Conduct.

Enrolled students, under the age of 21, found responsible for two or more offenses involving alcohol will result in parental notification.

Enrolled students, under the age of 21, found responsible for offenses involving drugs will result in parental notification.

Incidents related to alcohol and/or drugs that are determined to be life threatening to the student, threatening to the community, or involving other significant violations of the law or the Student Code of Conduct may result in parental notification regardless of the number of offenses. An incident in which a student is transported to the hospital as a result of alcohol and/or drugs may also be determined to constitute a threat or disruption to the campus community depending on the circumstances.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY
Mercer University strives to be a Community of Respect that includes respect for academic integrity. Students operate under an honor system and will exhibit the values of honesty, trustworthiness, and fairness regarding all academic matters. Students, faculty, and staff are expected to report any violations in the forms of, but not limited to, cheating, plagiarism, and academic dishonesty to the honor council appropriate for their campus and program.
Procedures related to Honor Systems and Academic Integrity are outlined in the specific handbooks for each campus and can be found on the Provost website at http://provost.mercer.edu/handbooks.

Mercer University is dedicated to the advancement of knowledge and learning and to the development of ethically responsible persons. The University is an academic community that believes honesty is essential to learning. Academic integrity at Mercer is advanced through the Honor System. The Honor System is maintained through various Honor Codes within colleges and schools of the University.

Participation in the Honor System is not optional. By the act of entering Mercer University, each student consents to Mercer’s Honor System and thereby agrees to be governed by its rules. Students are expected to read and familiarize themselves fully with the Honor Code and to cooperate completely with the System.

Students at McAfee School of Theology are required to abide by both the University Honor Code located online at http://provost.mercer.edu/handbooks/integrity.cfm and the McAfee School of Theology Honor Code located below.

CHEATING AND PLAGIARISM
Mercer University’s Graduate Student Honor Code addresses the issues of cheating and plagiarism. It defines cheating as “the taking of credit for work which has been done by another person.” Plagiarism is “the use of ideas, facts, phrases, or additional material such as maps and charts from any source without giving proper credit for such material.” Examples include, but are not limited to the following:

Using information from any source, including internet sources, without giving proper acknowledgement to the original author of the material;
Submitting the same, or nearly the same, paper for academic credit in two classes without the consent and approval of both instructors;
Submitting another student’s work as one’s own or allowing one’s work to be submitted by another student;
Turning in late assignments without clearly indicating that the work is submitted late;
Giving or fabricating false citations and references in any material submitted for grading.

MCAFEE SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY HONOR CODE POLICY
I, a student of the McAfee School of Theology, pledge to conduct myself with honesty, integrity and understanding. I believe as a student, I can take responsibility in maintaining these and other Christian standards of behavior. I will promote the idea of community, interacting and learning from each other in a way that protects personal freedom and community standards.
I will ensure that all work is my own, and I will properly give credit where credit is due.
I will respect and honor all property, persons and facilities.
I will honestly report my participation in all classroom activities and student requirements.
I will uphold the stipulations and underlying values of the honor code.

I will ensure that all work is my own, and I will properly give credit where credit is due.
Any material without proper citation is assumed to be the author’s original work.
Plagiarism and related offenses are defined as, but not limited to:
Using information from any source without giving proper acknowledgment to the original author of the material;
Submitting the same, or nearly the same, paper for academic credit in two classes without the consent of both professors;
Submitting another student’s work as one’s own or allowing one’s work to be submitted by another student;
Turning in assignments after the deadline without clearly indicating that the work is submitted late;
Giving or fabricating false citations and references in any material submitted for grading.

I will refrain from cheating.
Cheating includes, but is not limited to:

Attempting to give or receive unauthorized assistance during an examination;
Using testing materials from past testing periods as a study guide unless authorized by the professor;
Discussing examination contents with any other student while taking an examination or test;
Offering or receiving assistance to/from another student during an examination or test;
Copying ideas or facts from another’s papers during an examination
Obtaining or providing specific information regarding an examination before the exam is administered without the professor’s permission;
Copying answers or ideas either verbally, or in writing, from another person during a testing situation;
Obtaining test questions or specific information included on an exam before a test without the professor’s permission.
Using unauthorized materials during an examination, quiz or other graded assignment. This includes notes, textbooks, or any unapproved translation of a biblical language;
Exceeding the time limits of an exam or an assignment without the professor’s permission, nor attempt to turn in an assignment after due date without clearly indicating the lateness of the work;
Failing to indicate clearly to the instructor that my written work was submitted after the announced deadline for such submissions;
I will respect and honor all property, persons and facilities.

Students, faculty, and staff engaging in the activities below will be considered in violation of the honor code. This includes, but is not limited to:

Disrupting or interfering with the orderly conduct or operation of any university activity, failing to obey the lawful instruction of the person in charge of such activity, or preventing others from freely engaging in the activity;
Disrupting or interfering with any university facility, failing to obey the lawful instruction of any person in charge of such a facility, or preventing others from freely using the facility;
Interfering with or denying free access to or egress from, or use of the university buildings, facilities, streets, or other property;

Engaging in conduct intended to obstruct access to potential evidence, or to alter, destroy, or conceal potential evidence connected with an Honor Code investigation or proceeding;
Filing a frivolous complaint (one without basis in fact) of an Honor Code violation with the intent to harass another student;

Attempting to intimidate or deter complainants, witnesses, or other participants in an Honor Code investigation or proceeding;

Preventing the discovery of prohibited conduct.

I will honestly report my participation in all classroom activities and student requirements.

It will be breaking the honor code if at any time a student engages in falsifying or misleading conduct in the areas of class attendance and participation. This would include, but is not limited to, the following:

- Signing the roll on behalf of another person who is not present;
- Having another person sign a roll for you when you are not present;
- Answering a roll call on behalf of someone not present;
- Having someone answer a roll call on your behalf when you are not present;
- Signing the roll and then departing before the end of class;
- Holding on to a roll call sheet so late arriving students may sign it;
- Misrepresenting your presence or participation in outside class requirements by:
  - Saying you were present when you were not;
  - Turning in material from an activity of which you were not a part;
  - Using previous experiences to fulfill the requirements of a current assignment, unless permission by the professor has been granted;
  - Misrepresenting the presence or participation of another student in outside class requirements by:
    - Claiming their presence when they were absent;
    - Gathering material for them to turn in for credit, unless permission by the professor has been granted.

I will uphold the stipulations and underlying values of the honor code.

The reliability of the honor code is dependent on the student’s full cooperation in adhering to the principles of integrity therein as well as reporting any infraction that one witnesses. The student assumes such a responsibility upon entering the McAfee School of Theology. Failure to report a violation either directly or indirectly is a failure to adhere to the code entirely.

As a member of the McAfee student body and as one preparing for Christian ministry students will conduct their lives with honesty, integrity, and character. A student shall be held in violation of said behavioral expectations only when the student’s conduct does not constitute an infringement of any specific stipulation of the honor code.

PROCESS AND PENALTIES

If a student infringes on the code or witnesses another student or party infringing upon the honor code, he or she must immediately report the infringement to the professor concerned and/or to the Associate Dean. Students will not inaccurately or falsely report their activities concerning the above regulations when questioned by a professor, Associate Dean, or Dean.

At McAfee School of Theology, all faculty and adjunct instructors must report any violation of the honor code to the Associate Dean for Masters Degree Programs.

Any McAfee student accused of a violation of the Honor Code will be notified in writing by the Associate Dean. If convicted, on the first offense, students will receive a “0” on the assignment and must meet with the Associate Dean to discuss the violation of the Honor Code. A subsequent offense, in any class, will result in an “F” in the course(s) and immediate expulsion from the McAfee School of Theology. Expulsion is the permanent removal of student status. Additionally, any student receiving scholarship funds convicted of an Honor Code violation will automatically forfeit his/her scholarship for the duration of their degree program. For more on this subject, please see the Graduate Honor System at http://provost.mercer.edu/handbooks/integrity.cfm.

In the event of a conviction, the accused may request the Dean to review a finding of guilt and/or the propriety of the penalty. The request must be made in writing within four school days and should enumerate the grounds on which the appeal is based. The Dean will review the request for an appeal to determine whether there are sufficient grounds to warrant reconsideration. If the Dean determines that reconsideration of the conviction or penalty is appropriate, he or she should consider questioning or hearing:

the accused
any witness that the accused or the Dean wishes to question the faculty member in whose class the violation is alleged to have occurred any written evidence used in the Associate Dean’s decision making process any records, notes, or recordings kept by the Associate Dean.

If after reconsideration the Dean believes that there are adequate grounds for changing the decision of the Associate Dean, he or she may reverse the conviction or, if additional evidence was presented after the original decision by the Associate Dean, refer the matter back to the Associate Dean for further deliberation.

The Dean will determine whether the incident should be managed within the academic unit or forwarded to the Graduate Council. If the decision is to forward to the Council, then such notification shall be immediately made to the Chairperson of the Graduate Council.

If the Dean determines that reconsideration of the conviction or penalty is not appropriate, the accused may appeal the finding of guilt and/or the propriety of the penalty to the Graduate Council.

PROCEDURES FOR APPEAL TO THE GRADUATE COUNCIL
The Graduate Council will select two members of the Honors Panel for an Honor Committee and request that the Dean name the remainder of the Committee by: (1) selecting two members of the Graduate Honor Panel, and (2) naming one additional member of the Graduate Faculty. The Dean will appoint one member of this group as chairperson.

The Chairperson of the Honors Committee will notify the accused student(s) and will serve as an investigator to determine the facts of the case. The Honors Committee will conduct the case according to the procedures described in the following section.

Policies and procedures regarding graduate student infractions of the Honor Code are established by the Graduate Council of Mercer University. To this purpose, the Graduate Council shall establish and maintain a panel of members of the Graduate Faculty who are available to adjudicate cases of infractions reported to the Council. The members of this Panel may be called upon to serve as an Honors Committee to judge violations of the Honor Code and to recommend penalties for those found guilty of infractions. Each college or school which offers graduate programs falling under the jurisdiction of the Graduate Council shall select three members of its Graduate Faculty to serve on the Honor Panel. The Honor Panel members shall serve for staggered terms, so as to provide for continuity of experience.

the accused

if additional evidence was presented after the original Honor Committee decision, refer the matter back to the Committee for its further deliberation.

If the Provost determines that reconsideration of the conviction or penalty is not appropriate, the accused may appeal the finding of guilt and/or the propriety of the penalty to the President. The decision of the President shall be final.

ACADEMIC AND NON-ACADEMIC STUDENT GRIEVANCES

GRIEVANCE, ACADEMIC
Students have the right to bring grievances against a faculty member or an administrator concerning academic matters. A “grievance” is typically a complaint relating to some allegedly improper action or behavior. An “appeal” is typically a request for review of a routine judgment or decision. Such matters may include, but are not limited to failure to abide by requirements described in the course syllabus, arbitrary awarding of grades, discrimination based on race, color, national origin, disability, veteran status, sex, sexual orientation, genetic information, age, or religion (except in limited circumstances where religious preference is both permitted by law and deemed appropriate as a matter of University policy).

Time Frame
For grievances and appeals of any kind, students are required to initiate them with the appropriate faculty member no later than thirty (30) days from the completion of the term in which the course was offered. Grievances or appeals received after this period will not be honored.

Informal Resolution Procedure
Student grievance and appeal procedures encourage each student to handle complaints as close to the source as possible. If a student has a complaint against a faculty member, the student should first attempt to resolve the issue by an informal meeting with the faculty member involved. If this is not satisfactory, or if the student believes that he or she cannot discuss the complaint with the instructor, the student may follow the Formal Resolution Procedure.

Formal Resolution Procedure
The following protocol should be followed:

The student should meet with the Associate Dean after submitting to this person a formal written account of the grievance or appeal. This narrative must be submitted no later than thirty (30) days from the date on which the student was formally notified of the instructor’s decision.
If the grievance or appeal is not satisfactorily resolved by the Associate Dean, the student should meet with the Dean after submitting to the Dean a formal written account. This narrative must be submitted no later than thirty (30) days from the date on which the student was formally notified of the Associate Dean’s decision.
If the grievance is not satisfactorily resolved by the Dean, the student should meet with the Provost after submitting to the Provost a formal written account of the grievance or appeal. This narrative must be submitted no later than thirty (30) days from the date on which the student was formally notified of the Dean’s decision.

If the student has a grievance or appeal involving a Dean, he or she should schedule an appointment with that Dean in an attempt to resolve the matter. If the matter is not resolved or if the student believes that he or she cannot discuss the issue with that Dean, the student may address the grievance or appeal to the Provost. In all academic grievance and appeal procedures, the decision of the Provost is final.

Graduate Appeals
Dr. Wayne Glasgow
Senior Vice Provost for Research
Dean of Graduate Studies
Glasgow_WC@mercer.edu

If an appeal is not resolved within the school, forwarding an appeal to the Office of the Provost is the last step of the formal academic grievance process. The complainant would need to provide written documentation of their communication with each college/school administrator (program director/department chair, Assistant/Associate Dean, and the Dean), including the student’s requests and the administrators’ responses, not just a narrative of the student’s complaint.

GRIEVANCE, NONACADEMIC

Policy Statement
Mercer University recognizes the importance of providing an efficient procedure for a timely and fair resolution of a nonacademic grievance. Students are encouraged to use the process to resolve allegations concerning (1) a University employee, (2) administrative policies or procedures, (3) a University program, service, or activity.

Non-academic grievances involving student conduct issues fall under “University Regulations and Judicial Programs” section of this handbook.

Procedure

Informal resolution

Many grievances may be resolved via informal personal meetings, phone calls, or e-mails directly with the employee or office responsible for the grievance. Whenever possible, students are encouraged to exercise these avenues of communication first. However, should these avenues not rectify the grievance, or the student wishes to bypass the informal resolution process, then the formal grievance process below should be implemented.

Formal Grievance

When a student wishes to file a formal complaint that is nonacademic in nature, he or she should follow these procedures:

The student should submit the complaint in writing to the University employee responsible for the action or event that forms the basis of the grievance. This statement should be titled “Formal Grievance” and contain a brief statement of the grievance and the remedies sought. A copy of the statement must also be presented to the employee’s supervisor and the Associate Vice President of Human Resources. The complaint should be submitted to the employee within ten (10) days of the action or event that forms the basis of the grievance.

The employee respondent will then meet with the student along with their supervisor or the Associate Vice President of Human Resources to discuss the complaint within ten (10) days of receipt of the written formal grievance. The employee respondent will reply in writing to the student with the results of the discussion at the meeting and plans for further action, if any, within ten (10) days of the meeting. A copy of this reply will be provided to the Associate Vice President of Human Resources.

If a student is not satisfied with the results of the discussion and/or with the reply and wants the formal grievance to be considered further, the student may appeal in writing to the employee respondent’s supervisor. A copy of this appeal must be sent to the Associate Vice President of Human Resources. This appeal to the supervisor must begin within ten (10) days after the student receives the written reply from the employee responsible for the action or event that forms the basis of the grievance. A written reply indicating the results of the appeal including further action, if any, to be taken will be sent to the student by the employee’s supervisor within ten (10) days of the meeting between the student and the employee’s supervisor. A copy of this response will be sent to the Associate Vice President for Human Resources.

If the student is not satisfied with the results of the appeal to the supervisor and wants the formal grievance to be considered further, the student will have an opportunity for further appeal as follows: In the case of complaints concerning employees, policies, procedures, or programs of a nonacademic nature within a specific school or college, the student may appeal to the Dean with responsibility for the employee’s unit and request a meeting in order to seek a resolution. This appeal must begin within ten (10) days after the employee’s supervisor has completed consideration of the grievance and responded in writing to the student. A written reply from the Dean indicating the results of the meeting and including further action, if any, to be taken will be sent to the student within ten (10) days after consideration of the formal grievance. A copy of the appeal and the response from the Dean must be provided to the Associate Vice President of Human Resources.
If the student is not satisfied with the decision of the Dean, the student may appeal in writing to the Provost with responsibility for the school or college and request a meeting. The appeal must begin within ten (10) days of the date the Dean has completed consideration of the formal grievance and responded in writing to the student. A written reply by the Provost indicating the results of the meeting and including further action, if any, to be taken will be sent to the student within ten (10) days after consideration of the grievance. The decision of the Provost with responsibility for the employee’s unit will be the final University decision on the grievance. A copy of the appeal to the Provost and the Provost response will be copied to the Associate Vice President of Human Resources.

In the case of complaints concerning employees, policies, procedures, or programs of a nonacademic nature outside of the administrative organization of a specific school or college, the student may appeal to the Vice President with responsibility for the employee’s unit and request a meeting in order to seek a resolution. This appeal must begin within ten (10) days after the employee’s supervisor has completed consideration of the formal grievance and responded in writing to the student. A written reply from the Vice President indicating the results of the meeting and including further action, if any, to be taken will be sent to the student within ten (10) days after consideration of the grievance. The decision of the Vice President with responsibility for the employee’s unit will be the final University decision on the formal grievance. A copy of the complaint to the Vice President and their response will be submitted to the Associate Vice President of Human Resources.

The Dean of students or student affairs designee on each campus serves as a resource for students seeking assistance with grievance procedures.
