

UNIVERSITY POLICIES

Title: Academic Program Assessment Policy
Effective Date: December 2, 2024
Issuing Authority: Provost
Policy Contact: Vice Provost for Institutional Effectiveness
(478) 301-2892

Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to ensure that academic programs at Mercer University uphold student learning assessment obligations for institutional and, if applicable, disciplinary accreditation. This policy requires assigned personnel to identify expected student learning outcomes, assess the extent to which those outcomes are achieved, and provide evidence of seeking improvement based on analysis of the results for each academic program.

Scope

This policy applies to all academic programs within the University.

Exclusions

None

Definitions

As used in this policy, the following term(s) have the meaning specified below:

Academic program: a set of courses leading to a credential. This definition includes all degrees with a defined major and all stand-alone certificates.

Policy Statement

Personnel responsible for each academic program, as assigned by the dean or designee, must submit an annual assessment report by the date selected by the provost and published by the Office of Institutional Effectiveness. Each report must contain two or more student learning outcomes and, for each outcome, must include:

- One or more direct measurements of the extent to which the outcome was achieved
- Results for those measurements
- Evidence of seeking improvement to student learning based on the analysis of the results
- A plan to seek improvement to student learning and to reassess one or more outcomes

For a program with low or no enrollment, a report must be submitted that contains as many required elements as possible, though with limited or no results.
